Prologue

The SCOUT OF 1949 expresses the school life of the industrious, fun-loving David City high school students. This daring adventure, organized by the publications department, has its most thrilling experiences within the walls of David City High School.

The life of the seniors, the true '49ers, and of the underclassmen, the youthful prospectors, is vividly shown in this one long journey to a new horizon where each one of them will someday find their long lost treasure.

- Activities of all kinds helped to make this a more enjoyable trip for everyone who has been willing to work and cooperate on this great adventure.

Makers of The Maps

"It has been a real pleasure to me to work with the students and join them in their various activities. To each of you, I wish success and happiness and especially to the seniors." Mr. H. C. Ebmeier, Superintendent of David City High School.

The Makers of the Maps, Mr. Vauck, Mr. Ebmeier and the school board have helped to make this a most successful and enjoyable trip.

The school board, elected by the people for the purpose of securing a good school for the community, begins early to chart the way for each year's journey. They make plans for activities, prepare a budget and hire teachers, among whom are Mr. Vauck and Mr. Ebmeier. Both do much in helping pupils to select the courses they need to take.

Mr. Vauck has B. Sc. and M. A. degrees

"The struggle for knowledge is as old as creation and as new as the present. It will ever be so to the end of time. We trust that the meager start in the quest for knowledge we have given you here in David City High School will prove to be a perpetual impetus and guide to greater things." Mr. B. E. Vauck, Principal of David City High School.

from the University of Nebraska. Besides being principal, he also teaches advanced algebra. Mr. Vauck's hobby is making and refinishing small pieces of furniture. His favorite delight is popping and eating pop corn, and his pet peeve is squirting grapefruit.

Mr. Ebmeier has A. B. and M. A. degrees from the University of Nebraska. Mr. Ebmeier's hobby is photography. His favorite delight is fried chicken and sour cream on apple pie, and his pet peeve is nosey people (not physical, that is.)

The School Board members are Mr. Harold Zinnecker, Dr. D. E. Burdick, Mr. J. V. Nicodemus, Mrs. V. D. Friis, Mrs. Vern Campbell, and Mrs. B. Smith.

Bullwhackers

As "Bullwhackers" for the year, the Student Council kept us from "going astray" by filling the year with entertaining and educational assembly programs. The responsibility of presenting this outside talent was delegated to the Student Council President.

On the evening of November 23, the Bull-whackers "whipped us into action" by hitting us between the eyes with a party (they threw it, that is). With the party came the introduction of "program" dances. This was a plan to encourage more people to take part in the dances, and proved very successful.

They next decided that a "flower fund" from the students be set aside for use in case of illness or bereavement in the immediate families of students and faculty members.

Officers for the year were John Kucera, President; Norman Muntz, Vice-President; Jim Burdick, Secretary; Jack Lang, Treasurer. Other members were elected by the students to represent their respective classes.

Gary Widle, Phyllis Blevins, Barbara Michael, and Ben Zinnecker discuss their prospective dances at the Student Council-sponsored program dance, Nov. 23.

This is a story of sixty-one of the most courageous and daring young adventurers of today. Yes, these sixty-one make up the graduating class of 1949.

Four years ago, these young people set out on a journey, a long, hard journey, one which they hoped would some day lead them to the land of unlimited treasure. In that first year they were guided over steep cliffs and through rugged canyons by their class sponsors, Miss Joan Hoffman and Mr. Vauck, with the help of Norman Muntz, president; Jack Nichols, vice-president; Peggy Bechius, secretary; Jean Martin, treasurer. John Schlentz was student council representative. The class readily adapted itself to school activities and was soon on its way to success.

The second year was every bit as thrilling as the first. Everyone took an active part in music, athletics, speech, and other activities. The boys began vocational agriculture for the first year. The girls continued their homemaking, thus making better campfire meals on the long, hard journey to that new horizon beyond. This year Mr. McAlexander and Miss Swanson were class sponsors. Don Lawson, president, Morris Clemmer, vice-president, Monica Beringer, secretary, Kathryn Baker, treasurer, and Janet Glock, student council representative, helped to make the going a little easier.

The third year was highlighted by the junior-senior banquet. The class, with Kathryn Baker as general chairman, did a very nice job of decorating the auditorium in a winter wonderland scene. The center of the floor was decorated with an igloo. Soft colored lights helped to beautify the cool, comfortable scene. Several members of the class took an active part in the operetta, Meet Arizona, and in the junior class play, June Mad. At the head of the trail were Miss Roos and Miss McNaught, class sponsors. Janet Glock was class president; Jean Martin, vice-president; Adeline Hotovy, secretary; Lucille Ludvik, treasurer; and Jim Burdick, student council representative.

The fourth year brought about a great climax in which these sixty-one students reached the end of their interesting journey. Among the group that graduated in the '49 class are several star athletes, as well as outstanding students in music and speech. The guide on the last lap of the journey was Mr. Vauck, class sponsor; James Barlean, president; Donald Glock, vice-president; Edith Sauser, secretary; and Eugene Glock, treasurer. Kenneth Schmit, Cherie Rathjen, James Burdick, Monica Beringer, and Norman Muntz were student council representatives. Among the year's activities were the senior class play, You Can't Take It With You, the operetta, Waltz Dream, the junior-senior banquet, and sneak day.

You may ask what it was that made this trip so outstanding. It is the cooperation of every member on the trip that has made it what it was. It was their cooperation that has brought them to the gold rush of 1949. Here they have reached the end of one of the many trips of life and a great new horizon in which they can place their hopes and dreams opens up before them.

Speculators

The Speculators have taken "great chances" along the trails, but in spite of the difficulties and hardships they have contributed some of the school's most outstanding athletes as well as many high-spirited student leaders. Their fine cooperation and activity give promises of an exceptional senior class for next year.

Officers for the year were president, Marvin Craig; vice-president, Gary Widle; secretary, Eugene Sobolik; treasurer, George Hain. Their very helpful sponsor was Miss Edith Roos.

The first activity that this year's "Speculators" undertook with their customary energy was the production of the class play, "Great Expectations," at the auditorium January 7 and 8. This play, written by Charles Dickens, was the first serious type play to have been put on by the school in many years. Not only did the cast do a fine job, but credit must also be given to the hardworking production staff and to the play's director, Mr. Rex Coslor.

The Junior-Senior Banquet, which was held April 30, was the entire school year's climax. The theme, "Forty-niners", took us right out of modern days into the past—back to the rugged gold-rush days, with the entertainment, decorations and dinner completing its perfection

David City has a very good transportation system for their high school. At the present time they are maintaining four "covered wagons" which bring students from all directions to school every day. The drivers are Erwin Rerucha, Mr. Donor, John Tomek, and Mr. Mercer.

This year is the first year that David City has -, had a "bullwhacker training" program. The school is furnished with cars that have dual controls. The students do actual behind - the wheel driving and take their examination for a driver's license. The program at the present. time is directed by Mr. Walter Schlichting with Mr. John Tomek as driving instructor. Eva Kilgore is presented with a driving certificate by a state patrolman after having taken the examination.

David City has adopted a hot lunch program at the Central school building. Those students desiring hot meals can have them for twenty-five cents a meal. The meals must have a certain Calorie content. The "kamp kettle" is prepared and served by Mrs. Rose Kozisek, Mrs. Blevins, and Mrs. John Tomek.

Fording the River

Those persons desirous of continuing their trip after high school can take a college preparatory course and thus prepare themselves for new adventures. This course consists of two or three years of science, two or three years of mathematics, two or three years of social studies, two years of foreign language, and three or four years of English.

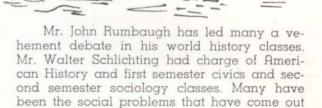

The tedious task of fording the river was well done this year with the able assistance of several guides.

Miss .Catherine Swanson had charge of all science, biology, physics, and chemistry.

Mr. Mercer's algebra and geometry classes and Mr. Burnett Vauck's advanced algebra class had many weary moments, and anguished sighs of distress.

Mr. Coslor tests Sara Beckler's hearing on the audiometer.

Mr. Frank Highby was guide for the Latin and 9th grade English classes. Mr. Rex Coslor taught 11th and 12th grade English and Miss Lucille Hoffman was in charge of the 10th grade English.

of that room.

David City high is recognized as one of the best schools in Nebraska and is accredited in the North American Central Association of Schools and Colleges. This makes it a very excellent place to take a college preparatory course.

Gold Assayers

Miss Edith Roos guided the shorthand, typing, and machine classes while Mr. Crandell was in charge of the bookkeeping class.

After completion of a commercial course these students can truly go out in the world as gold assayers. They may acquire any one of several different jobs, such as stenographer, typist, or secretary. The students taking a commercial course have the advantage of a well-equipped office making it easier for them to adjust themselves to future positions.

In the machines class, study of the calculator, electric bookkeeping machines, hand operated and electric adding machines, and dictaphone is included. The office also has duplicators, a ditto machine, a mimeograph, and several long carriage typewriters.

The commercial students also have office practice which includes working as a secretary for either Mr. Vauck or Mr. Ebmeier. The office students also type out tests, report cards; and notices for the bulletin board.

The normal trainers are true adventurers because they must complete four rugged years of study, after which they will go out into the world to try to lead other small children on the path to success. This task which lies before our Future Teachers of America is ever increasing in importance.

Pupils who desire to take normal training must maintain an average of at least 80 in their freshman and sophomore years; in which time they must have completed eight units of work. At the end of the sophomore year they must pass an intelligence test with an average grade; then they must take teacher's training I and II in their junior and senior years. To be eligible to teach, they must have completed seventy-two periods of professional training and passed the state teacher's examination with an average of at least 80.

After completing this course, students can qualify as Future Teachers of America.

Book Shop

This is our "book shop." Yes, and it's one to be proud of! From 1945 to 1949, fifteen hundred separate volumes have been classified in the library by Miss Hoffman and her faithful assistants. We should also be proud of the people who have volunteered to work so willingly in the library as it really is a steady and never-ending job to get the books ready for our use. Linda Vanderkolk has typed approximately twenty-five hundred cards for the 343 volumes which were added to the shelves this year, and has been Miss Hoffman's "right arm", so to speak, for many years where library work is concerned. The "book shop" also has subscriptions to 65 different magazines. It is surely a privilege to have a library so well equipped for our education and pleasure.

Frontier Women

Under the capable supervision of Miss Donice McNaught, the home economics girls have had a very full and interesting year. This field of study covers a three year course, taking in such things as cooking, sewing, home arrangement and beautification, good grooming, home and family relations, and special projects for the advanced class.

As the most fun and knowledge is acquired by doing something, most of their study has been in the form of projects in which everyone helps to make the thing a success.

Among the other things in the year's activities has been the study of textile painting, the serving of the school board, and playing maid at the junior-senior banquet. Many of the girls also attended the FHA district convention. Altogether, it has been quite an adventure.

Pioneers of the Soil

Guiding the FFA and vocational agriculture boys on their way to success this year has been Mr. Robert Gingery. The FFA officers, George Barlean, president; Donald Glock, vice-president; Donald Kroft, secretary; Donald Heins, treasurer; and Eugene Glock, news reporter, have helped to make the trip an interesting and successful one.

The boys carry some project such as baby beef or corn each year. They take care of their crop or animal and keep record on it. In this way they are also learning the importance of keeping good financial records.

The FFA officers entered the parliamentary procedure contest at Lincoln. The boys attend conventions, farm demonstrations, have box socials with FHA girls and have a really good time even when they are working.

We hope that these boys will some day be good, trustworthy farmers.

FFA Officers—Eugene Glock, Don Kroft, Don Heins, Jim Barlean, George Barlean, Mr. Gingery, Don Glock.

Mr. Kent Ryan, one of the coaches, had charge of the boys' shopwork. He has done a very effective job of making them woodwork-conscious.

In the first year of shop the main objectives are to become familiar with woods and their properties and to learn how to use various woodworking tools. The boys also learn the value of hand work in woodworking. About the first and the simplest thing that a boy learns when he takes shop is how to make a picture frame.

In advanced shop, they learn to use power equipment such as the turning lathe, the different kinds of electric saws, the drill press, grinders, the power jointer, and the tilting arbor.

Those people who wonder what course they should take have had their problem solved. If they do not wish to specialize in any one thing, they can take a general course.

The only subject requirements in this course are three years of English, one year of social studies, one year of mathematics, and one year of science. To obtain the remainder of the credits necessary for graduation, the students can choose what other subjects they want. The gamblers who choose to take a general course will probably take specialized courses in college or business schools.

Journalists

The journalists are the people who gather and compile the news. In this long, hard task lies the success of this annual. Though it has been fun, it has meant a great deal of planning and a lot of long nights spent at designing pages and writing articles. Guiding the journalists on their way to success has been Mr. Franklin Highby. He has helped his pupils to get on the right road to a literary career. Besides writing the SCOUT, the publications department has also published several very interesting editions of the SCOOP.

The SCOUT, under the direction of the editor, Kathryn Baker and her able assistants, has become a great success. Among some of the tasks that have been successfully completed were the annual sales, editing, copyfitting, and proofreading. All these tasks well done have made this trip one that will always be remembered.

Enteri

The first production of the "Entertainers" was a play entitled "Tons of Money." This play, a hilarious comedy in three acts, was the first school play to have been put on for two successive nights. And the results proved very favorable. The play was such a hit that it brought in more money than any other previous school production. The play was under the direction of our very cheerful, very earnest, and very able speech instructor, Mr. Rex Coslor, with hard-working Mary Lou Homolka and Kathryn Baker as student directors. Members of the cast, loaded with enthusiasm, were Janet Glock, Don Glock, Jean Rippe, Bud Zinnecker, Beatta Schlueter, Don Lawson, Norman Bokelman, and Wilfred Samek.

Top — Declamatory contest entries were Beatta Schleuter, Kathryn Baker, Jean Martin, Irene Hinze, Eugene Glock, Janet Glock, John Schlentz.

Bottom—Dorothy Engler and Mr. Coslor use Herman, the wire recorder.

Bottom:—Adeline Hotovy, Milo Dworak, Tom Thomassen, and Alice Andel in the contest play, "Pueblo Bonito."

With the proceeds from the speech class play, a wire recorder was purchased. This invention has proved to be a very handy "gadget" for the whole school. Its most valuable purpose is to correct speech defects. It really became popular and useful about contest time. Then dramatists, singers, band players, FFA speakers, chorus groups, and band all made a mad scramble for it.

We have been trying to build up interest in the speech department throughout the entire student body this year. The encounters of the speech department and its members have been successful so far and we hope that next year we will see new faces in speech so that the "Entertainers" can really put on a "big showing."

As the curtain goes up we see Bob Lawson, Gladyce Kozisek, Milo Dvorak, Harold Grubaugh, Irene Hinze, Jim Allen, Marilyn Maack, Marvin Craig, Eugene Sobolik, Gary Widle, Mary Mulligan, Mary Lou Neujahr, Jean Klein, Joy Lonn, and Joan Nichols presenting "Great Expectations." The play, written by Charles Dickens, was of a serious type and proved to be a successful show. The play was not only a source of entertainment but it was also a source of education as members of Mr. Coslor's English classes will well remember.

It was obvious that learning their parts was not the only duty of the cast. Several new ideas and stage techniques were used. The cast and stage hands built a flexible set which may be used for other plays in the future. New lighting techniques which were very effective were also introduced.

"You Can't Take It With You." How true, but this is not only philosophy,—it's the title of the senior class play. This play has had several years of Broadway success, and also had two nights of howling success at the City Auditorium.

The "Characters" (and how!) were portrayed by Doris Beringer, Cherie Rathjen, Beatta Schlueter, Norman Bokelman, Henry DeFord, Jack Armagost, Jim Barlean, Eugene Glock, Kathryn Baker, Roman Humlicek, Norman Muntz, Jim Burdick, Mary Lou Homolka, Don Lawson, Monica Beringer, Jean Martin, Lewis Zinnecker, George Barlean, Don Danaher. Mr. Rex Coslor was the director with Betty Lou Wadkins and Janet Glock as student directors.

Amid plays, snakes, ballet dancing, fireworks, and musicians, the cast unfolded the story of a family of people who believed that everyone should make the most of his life by doing whatever he enjoys the most and has the opportunity to do because—"You Can't Take It With You."

Playing a musical instrument always seems to be a favorite pastime when day is done. The David City students like to do it any time; that is why they have organized such a good band. This body of fifty-six musicmakers, including several majorettes, is directed by Mr. C. A. Crandell.

Besides the school activities, the band also takes part in many out-of-town activities. Among these are the Nebraska State Fair, the Platte County Fair, University Band Day, and the Butler County Fair.

In the spring music clinic, which was held March 29, the band was directed by Professor Carl Forsberg, director of the instrumental music department of Midland College.

The band gave two concerts this winter; one on Sunday, February 13, and the other March 13.

The year was highlighted by the music contest held at Fremont on April 8 in which not only the band but also several small groups and soloists took part.

The junior band, swing band, pep band, and the small groups help to keep things as lively and happy as possible. The junior band is for the younger and inexperienced musicians. Students may enter junior band even if they have never played an instrument before, and gradually work themselves up to senior band.

Swing band is a small group of students who are interested in popular music and who often play for school dances.

The pep band helps to spur up the pep at the athletic games.

The small groups consist of such groups as the clarinet and saxophone quartettes, trumpet trio, and brass sextette.

Campfire Scenes

Even on the busiest days, there is time for a little group singing around the old campfire. That is where the senior choir leads the way.

Under the able direction of Miss Phyllis Lierk, the choir has done some fine work this year.

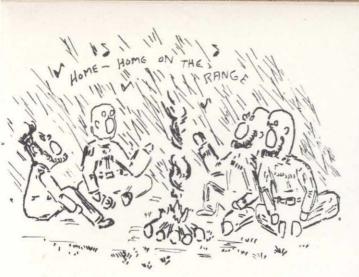

The main highlight of the year was the operetta, Waltz Dream, which was given February 1 and 2. It brought to the audience all the romance and loveliness of Vienna. Among the other important adventures of the season was the annual Christmas program. The spring music clinic, in which the choir was directed by Professor Oscar Lydias, director of vocal music at Midland College, was held March 29. The choir, soloists, and small groups also took a very active part in the music contest at Fremont on April 8.

The tribe tacked up 157 "scalps" (points) in their tepees to the enemies' 70 scalps. This is better marksmanship than has been displayed by our braves in many moons.

DeFord, Burdick, Muntz, and Thomassen were selected by chiefs of neighboring tribes as "High Marksmen" (for All-Conference that is) for the season.

The younger braves (reserves, that is) had some pretty fierce warriors to battle against, but in spite of this they showed us some fine teamwork and spirit which is worth more than all the scores.

And way up on the "shelf" we find some talented "papooses" (freshmen) who staged their own war parties with braves of their own size. Having scalped Seward's freshmen as a final blow, our own treshmen team returned to its own reservation undefeated. The team is to be congratulated for the fine work. We are certain that when the players get on the reserves and varsity they can maintain their record.

Tootie Muntz was elected Honorary Captain at the football banquet—a well deserved title to an outstanding football player and all-around fine fellow. Also at the banquet, football awards were given and the senior players were awarded gold football pins. At this time we wish to say to our graduating players, Burdick, Clemmer, Curtis, DeFord, Muntz, Novell and Tomek, that we are proud of you! The fine sportsmanship, hard work, and enthusiasm you have shown throughout your years attending David City High has been a credit to you and to our school.

Indian Skirmishrs

As the seasonal skirmishes began, the braves of our tribe climbed upon their "high-horses" in preparation for attacking any "wagon trains" which might trespass upon their "hunting grounds." With Chief Hair-Standing-on-End Ryan driving them onward, the first outstanding "skirmish" became the scalping of Columbus's Class A team, but when our braves surrounded and massacred Schuyler's wagon train, the whole tribe tossed its weapons into the air, and leaped into a war-dance of joy, for they had beaten our all-time rivals!!

The younger braves (reserves) attacked the wagon trains with a strong force and won ten out of thirteen skirmishes. This was fine work fellows, keep it up for the future. Speaking of teams for future reference, we have the "Papooses" (freshmen braves) who saved the hunting-grounds by coming out undefeated! The trophy they won was presented to Mr. Ebmeier in an assembly program March 31.

High-Marksmen for the year were Burdick and Hain, both with 103 points. We feel that all our graduating players can be rated as high-marksmen for your participation in basketball throughout your years of high school. The effort you have put forth and the sportsmanship you have displayed has been an inspiration to encourage the teams which follow in your footsteps.

Reeping Fit

Under the supervision of Mr. Schlicting and Mr. Rumbaugh, the boys in the physical education classes were kept in condition with much activity. Some of the activity which consisted of tumbling, calisthenics, and kitten ball lasted throughout the year.

Here again our Freshmen came into the spot-light. We find that they were not only undefeated in football, but also became champions of the freshmen basketball tournament. You fellows have done a fine job of "Keeping Fit" this year. Let's hope that this will continue throughout your years at David High and we might add, for the rest of your lives, so that you may not only represent our school with bigger and better teams but that you may also represent the bigger and better citizens of our America.

Keeping Fit

Even on the busiest days the girls seem to have time for a little exercise. They manage to get this through a good well-equipped girls' physical education program. Mrs. Ryan was instructor of all girls in the seventh through twelfth grades who desired to take physical education as an activity.

The purpose of physical education is to help use up surplus energy and to maintain good body health and strength.

Some of the games they played were softball, basketball, volley ball, badminton, deck tennis, and ping pong. The girls held a basketball tournament in which the junior team was winner. They all participated in the interclass track and field meet. Tumbling was also a major part of their curriculum, as was exhibited to the public at a basketball game.

Tournament winners were the juniors, Lucille Palik, Phyllis Vanous, Mary Ann Mulligan, Dorothy Sabata, Mrs. Ryan, Mary Lou Neujahr, Margaret Rerucha, Elaine Wadkins. Bottom—Lucille Ludvik, Cheri Rathjen, Doris Beringer, Janet Glock, and Edith Sauser going to Play Day at the University.

Mary Lou Neujahr slips up for a home run while Alice Andel catches.

Gold Diggers

"Pop corn!" "Candy bars!"
"Gum!" "Hot dogs!" These were the passwords used by the thirty-four Pep Club members in their sales after school, at tournaments, and track meets. The gold rush was on.
These sales were to dig up the "gold" to finance a trip for the Pep
Club members and their guests, the DC Club members, to Omaha to see
"Ice Capades" on March 26.

President Jean Martin gave orders and directions, Vice-President Janet Glock ordered supplies, Secretary Adeline Hotovy kept records of advances and meetings, and Treasurer Lucille Ludvik kept records of "gold findings", and all shipments.

Yelling at the "War Parties" and "Skirmishes" was led by Janet Glock, Mary Lou Neujahr, Carole Vanderkolk, and Jean Martin.

Buffalo Skinners

Along the trail of the gold rush, the DC Club acquired new members who were not only expert "buffalo skinners", but who also lettered in basketball, football, or track. The new members admitted into the organization, Danaher, Armagost, Lang, Johnson, Hopwood, Gilmore, Sobolik, Fyfe, Schmit, and Tomek, brought the membership up to twenty-two.

The DC Club had a busy year. They selected Jean Martin as a very charming football queen and then presented her with a lovely necklace at the Valentine party which they sponsored. The next activity which kept every member busy was planning and putting on a Spring prom. The yearly initiation of the new members was held late in the spring.

Officers for the year were Hank DeFord, President; Morris Clemmer, Vice-President; John Kucera, Secretary-treasurer.

The life of the Forty-niners was not always dull and full of hard work. There were several bright spots along the way that will be well-remembered. We'll all remember the customary Carnival Dance, sponsored by the Journalism Class, which featured all kinds of concessions, our school swing band making with the music for dancing, and Mr. Ebmeier acting as "judge" for the culprits who were "Arrested" during the evening. The next gettogether was a dance sponsored by the Student Council. This introduced "program dances" which made a hit with the gang as it kept everyone busy and entertained. The D.C. Club sponsored a Valentine dance and at the same time crowned Tootie Muntz and Jean Martin as football King and Queen.

Social Times

Besides the parties and dances, the Student Council sponsored several assemblies, introducing some talented people from the "outside world." The programs which everyone will remember as being the most outstanding were the "White Hussars," the "Cartoon Review," and Mr. Rowland's "Hobby Program."

The last month of school was devoted to the seniors—that trip to Omaha for senior sneak day; the reading of the class will and prophecy to the student body; the Junior-Senior Banquet; and last but not least all the things which go along with GRADUATION!

This has been a great year—for all of us but especially for the seniors who have completed their last year at D. C. H. S. But this is not "the end," for there is a lifetime ahead which will lead you on in the Rush for Golden Opportunities!

The Football King and Queen, Jean Martin and Norma Muntz, dance a solo dance.

Irackers

With the dawning of spring, after a long rugged winter on the trails of the Gold Rush, the "Trackers" dashed ahead to blaze the way for the last lap leading to the Pot O' Gold.

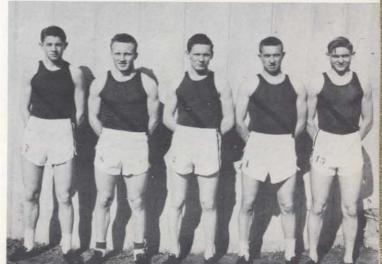

Having the "goal(d)" in mind, our "Trackers" made outstanding records in the quadrangular field and track meet, the District Class B and D track and field meet, and the Central Eight Meet, along with several invitational meets.

With only one Senior among them, the returning lettermen were Darrell Curtis, Norman Svoboda, Bill Ritterbush, John Dean Kucera, and Bob Lawson.
