We Enter to Learn. We Exit to Accomplish.

It's a Great Life

As the year comes to a close and another group of seniors leave, the staff of The Scout of 1954 brings to one and all in this year's annual some of the memories of this past year with the hope that it has been and will be in the future A GREAT LIFE.

It has been a GREAT LIFE AT SCHOOL this year for the administration and faculty as well as the students of David City High School.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE LEARNING because the students have the opportunity to learn from a variety of subjects and courses.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE COMPETING in athletic events during the school year. It's football in the fall, basketball in the winter and track in the spring.

Activities complete the school year. They truly make the school life a GREAT LIFE LIVING.

Today, as students of David City High School, we are enjoying the days of high school. Tomorrow as citizens of America, we will cherish these days in our memories knowing that IT'S A GREAT LIFE to live in the United States—"land of the free and the home of the brave."

Responsible for the redecorated rooms, new furnishings and new equipment, is the Board of Education.

The Board, consisting of six members elected by the people, has proved its interest in education by providing a wide variety of subjects and activities and a well-trained teaching staff for the students.

Under the guidance of Dr. D. E. Burdick, president, the board, made up of Mrs. V. D. Friis, vice president; Mr. Harold Zinnecker, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Robert Mayfield, Mrs. Mildred Smith and Mr. Charles Vasina, has helped the David City Public School to become a school that is concerned with the students before and after graduation.

The watchful eye of Mr. H. C. Ebmeier, superintendent, has aided the Board to understand some of the students' difficulties. With this knowledge they are able to make the school a better place for the teachers to work and the students to learn.

The Reminiscence of a D.C.H.S. Senior

Date: May 20, 1954

Place: Municipal Auditorium

Time: 8:15 p.m.

Graduation!!! It seemed when we were freshmen in 1950 that this time would never come.

Freshmen!! Why, it seems that it was only yesterday when we 63 freshmen began our four-year journey through the rustic halls of David City High School. Bill Peters was elected president of the class that year, Jackie Martin, vice president; Marilyn Miller, secretary, and Don Hamsa, treasurer. Pat Mulligan and Dick Wood served as student council representatives.

Our boys did okay in sports that year. We had an undefeated football team, and we captured the invitational track trophy.

Then, too soon, we were sophomores. Sixty of us started out the year. Dick Wood was our president, Bill Peters, vice president; Arlene Bock, secretary, and Kathryn Kilgore, treasurer. Wayne Fyle, John Wert and Marilyn Miller represented our class on the student council. Ten boys lettered in football that year.

In our junior year our class was narrowed down to 54 members. Jackie Martin was chosen to serve as our president, John Wert as vice president, Pat Milligan as secretary and Marilyn Miller as treasurer. Representing our class on the student council were Bill Peters, Kathryn Kilgore, Lois Jean Hinze and Don Hamsa. We did a number of things that year.

I remember our junior class play, "Hook, Line and Sink." County Government Day was another event which proved interesting and educational.

As I look down on my class ring, I remember the joyous day when they finally arrived, everyone was so proud of his.

Jackie Martin and Bill Peters were selected as Girls' State and Boys' State representatives. Thirteen boys lettered in football that year.

How could I forget the most memorable event of that year? Planning and preparing the Junior-Senior Banquet was quite the thing. We used "Oriental Gardens" as our theme and decorated the auditorium accordingly. It was a wonderful banquet that concluded a wonderful year.

Only 49 of us were left to represent the Class of 1954. But despite the small number we had a big year. Our officers were Dick Wood, president; Melvin McElravy, vice president; Marilyn Miller, secretary, and Marci Jo Nicodemus, treasurer. John Wert, Doris Roland, Pat Mulligan, Ann Klosterman and Dennis Jacob represented us on the student council.

Our senior class play was just as much fun to present as was our junior class play. And our senior field trip—boy, what a time!

I recall how thrilling it was to order our announcements and our personal cards. Then the rush and scramble to get our commencement robes ordered and to see that everyone received the correct size.

And then—why gee whiz—here I am at my high school graduation. This will be the last time our class will be together. I take a look at all the sober-faced, robed seniors sitting on the platform here tonight. I wonder if they are thinking of the same things I am. It's been a "Great Life" in high school. We've had so many good times and learned so much. I only wish I could start over again.

Juniors

Under the sponsorship of Misses Idonna Burkhart, Donna Rudisil and Virginia Tonsing, the junior class officers will lead the rest of the class through another important year of school. Paving the Way

Shown above are Maurice Bonne and Marion Graybill. The third member is "Ernest," a human torso and new addition to the biology department.

Boyd Hasik listens intently as Mr. James McConnell explains an exceptionally difficult step in a geometry problem.

A common threat to the United States, "The Isms," is being discussed in civics class by Ivan Rerucha, Mr. Robert Draney, social studies instructor, and Don Hamsa.

Mr. John Rumbaugh and Betty Phillips take a quick trip around the world, by means of a globe, in world history class.

Science! English! Latin! Mathematics! Social Studies! "Variety is the spice of life"—it has been said, and a variety of subjects can be studied in the college preparatory course at the David City High School.

This course, which is based on the fundamental subjects, is designed to meet the entrance requirements at the University of Nebraska.

David City High School offers four years of English, which includes grammar, literature and speech; two years of foreign language and three years each of mathematics, science and social studies.

The mathematics course includes beginning algebra, plane geometry and advanced algebra. Biology, physics and chemistry are the three individual courses offered in the science department.

The social studies available to the students are: world history, American history and civics. Typing also is offered to college preparation students, although it is not a requirement of the course.

for the Future

A scrapbook of events, but not events that happened here. Karen Haba and Gordon Beckler display a scrapbook about ancient Rome, made by last year's Latin II class.

Asleep in class! That isn't permitted here. Oh! It is only Grayce Allen, Dennis Jacob and Beryl Glock acting out a scene from "Macbeth" in the senior English class.

Elmer Haight and Catharine Klosterman, two of the 13 students struggling through advanced algebra, have Mr. B. E. Vauck explain a problem to them.

Step on the gas! This seems to be the idea of the new reading accelerator as Miss Lucile Hoffman shows Marilyn Fricke and Sandra Moore how to speed up their reading in freshman English class.

Complicated! That is what Allen Covault and Pat O'Brien seem to say after Miss Catherine Swanson explains this vernier caliper to them.

Today's Students

Wilma Svoboda and Gladyce Voboril are very busy checking over their office machines papers.

Click, click! Clash! Bang; What is it? A hurricane? No, it's only the girls in the commercial department preparing themselves for their future careers as secretaries.

The commercial department in David City High School, under the direction of Miss Idonna Burkhart, is one of the best equipped commercial departments in the state of Nebraska. The junior girls study typing and first-year shorthand, while the seniors take office practice, second-year shorthand and office machines.

During the year the senior girls prepare themselves for the Merit System Test and the Civil Service Test both of which are taken in the spring.

Math students probably wish they had this machine in their class! Maxine Timms is pictured operating the new ten-key adding machine.

Tomorrow's Secretaries

Office practice and secretarial positions to the administrators and some of the faculty give the commercial students the experience they will need in their forthcoming careers.

The second-year shorthand class includes typing, shorthand, dictation and transcription, services of different businesses, business law and short units on secretarial responsibilities.

In the office machines course the girls learn to operate the following machines: Dictaphone, calculator, Ditto, Mimeograph, electric typewriter, bookkeeping machine and adding machines.

Shirley Van Bummel works on her dictaphone budget in office machines.

"Will they be good or bad?" wonders Nancy Nozicka as she asks Miss Idonna Burkhart for her grades.

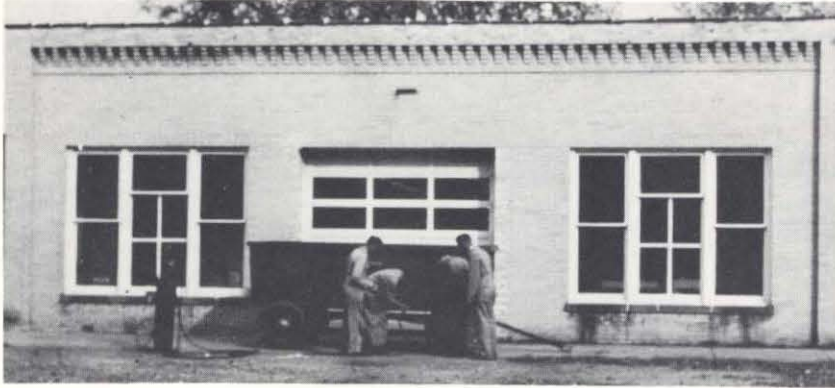

Virginia Alshouse takes the finishing words of a letter dictated by Mr. B. E. Vauck in office practice.

"Just about finished," think Doris Roland and Blondell Henk as they prepare The Scoops for mailing in office practice.

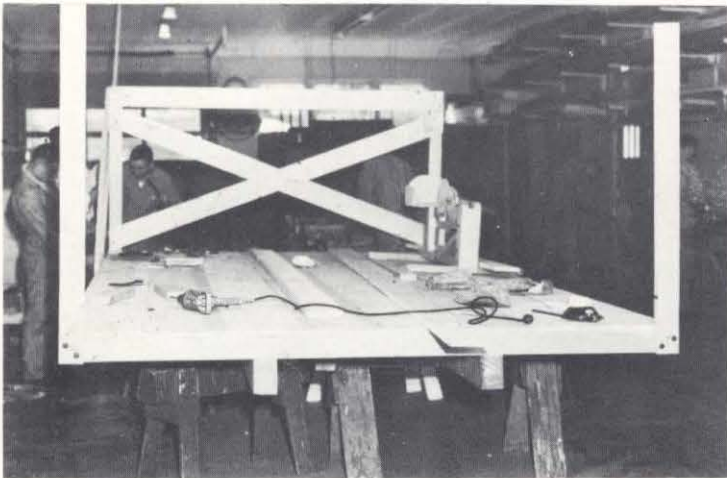

Down on the Farm

It's new, it's different, and it's handy. The new shop building, with its new conveniences, was purchased last year to be used by industrial arts and vocational agriculture shop classes.

Finished in time for the cold weather, Fred Bock's tank heater will be very useful on his father's farm.

Let's have a hayride party! The boys in the vocational agriculture shop are making a hay rack. Now all we need is a team of horses and some hay.

No wolf will be able to huff and puff and blow this building down, which is being built by Raynold Kouma, left, and Don Kozisek, right, in the vocational agriculture shop department.

To better their futures in farming is the main goal of the 55 boys enrolled in the four-year vocational agriculture course at the David City High School. Mr. Robert Florell is in charge of the boys for the current year.

Animal husbandry is studied during the freshman year, while the sophomores study crops and soil management. The third year is devoted mostly to advanced problems on livestock and crop production, while the Senior Class takes up farm management.

Vocational agriculture is supplemented with many field trips and judging contests to learn different farm skills throughout the year.

In addition to the class work, a four-year shop course is available. Freshman shop is devoted to farm carpentry, and the sophomores learn how to use power tools.

The Junior-Senior Class is a group that works mostly on farm machinery maintenance and large projects.

In this course, boys have three types of projects—production, betterment and farm skills.

What's Cooking?

"Home Sweet Home," that is what could be said about the newly-remodeled homemaking department, under the direction of Miss Donna Rudisil.

In addition to the pastel shaded kitchen cupboards installed two years ago, four dinette sets, new silverware and four sets of dishes have been added this year. A living area has also been furnished with a three-piece jade green sectional living room set, a limed-oak end table and a table lamp which the homemaking girls and Miss Rudisil selected on their field trip to Omaha. A rug, picture and other decorative objects complete the room.

The 85 students have studied the units of child guidance, meal planning, clothing construction, good grooming, personal and family relationships, marriage preparation and home furnishment in their course of home economics. With each unit the students complete a home experience of their own.

In the cool of the new home freezer, you will find food for the homemaking department and the school. The freezer is being admired by the student teachers (left to right) Miss Wanda Ham, Miss Lois Kieckhafer and Miss Donna Wamberg.

"Make your own clothes" is the idea Darlene Armagost has as she presses open the seams of the skirt she is making in home-making.

Santa's Little Workshop

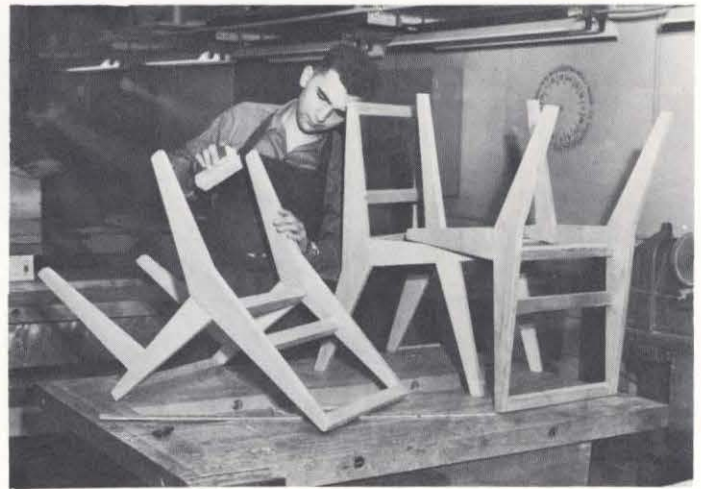

"Will it pass inspection?" is the question in the mind of Bill Lawson, as Mr. Kenneth Shuck examines Bill's lamp.

Adequate power and hand tools along with efficient arrangement of facilities makes the David City High School industrial arts department one of the most modern in the state.

Three years of training is offered in the industrial arts program. Mr. Kenneth Shuck, who has a Master of Arts degree in shop work, instructs the classes.

First-year shop teaches the use of hand tools and basic operations; second-year deals with power tools and proper operation of them.

The experiences gained in previous years is put into practice on individual projects during the third year of shop.

Ben Porter looks tempted to sit down, but decides he had better finish his chairs first.

The Shopsmith, which can be used for various jobs because of its many attachments, is being operated with the drill attachment by Denton Kindler.

"Make your own furniture," is the thought of Robert Houdesheldt and Don Rech as they examine some of the articles made by the boys in industrial arts.

Step on the Gas

Safe and sane driving methods are the goals that are sought by the David City High School's driver's training program. Fifty-five students enrolled in the course this year.

In the classroom, Mr. James McConnell teaches the fundamentals of safe driving. Mr. John Tomek directs the "behind the wheel" training in a 1953 Chevrolet, which is furnished by D. D. Davis, a local dealer.

The course is completed when the students obtain their driver's licenses.

"Out of the classroom" and "behind the wheel," seems to be what Lucille Soucek is doing, as she receives some pointers about driving from Mr. John Tomek, "behind-the-wheel" instructor.

Looking Ahead in Life

"How to Study," a part of the guidance program this year, is being discussed by Alfred Bonne, Mr. Robert Draney and Betty Backhus.

Helping students to find their major interests and choose a suitable occupation is the goal of the guidance program at the David City Public Schools, under the direction of Mr. Robert Draney.

Achievement and vocational tests are given to each student during the year, followed by individual and special group guidance.

The Scoop staff claims 15 of these in the editorial department to edit the six-page school newspaper which is published bi-weekly. The Scoop also employs two business managers and four ad solicitors to take charge of finances.

The remaining 11 of the group are engaged in publishing The Scout, the school yearbook, with Jackie Martin serving as editor.

David City's basketball squad, coached by John Rumbaugh, seemed to resemble a roller coaster this year as the Scouts had their ups and downs, winning seven and losing ten. The Scouts started the January action visiting two Western clubs. Denton Kindler ripped the nets with 13 points as the Scouts beat Ord 57-46. Broken Bow stopped the David City team 46-39 on the following evening.

It's a Great Life Living

The Coronation of '53

Long live the king! Long live the queen! In this case Bill Peters and Kathryn Kilgore are the royal couple. The attendants to the 1953 football king and queen are Dick Wood and Pat Mulligan.

Make way for the royalty! Bill Peters and Kathryn Kilgore were crowned 1953 grid king and queen of David City High School. The coronation took place on Oct. 16 during the half-time of the David City-York football game. The royal couple and their attendants, Dick Wood and Pat Mulligan, received their honors in a huge crown formed by the band and Pep Club.

Walt Svoboda and Betty Clymer, two of last year's royalty, crowned the king and queen. The queen was chosen by the D. C. Club, while the king was nominated by the Pep Club. All senior Pep Club girls were candidates for queen, and all senior D. C. Club members were eligible to be king.

A homecoming dance, sponsored by the Pep Club and honoring recent alumni, was held at the City Auditorium following the game.

What's this happy occasion? Why, it is the royalty of the 1953 football season riding off the field after receiving their honors.

Red and Black! Fight! Fight! With this yell the David City High School Pep Club cheered their way through another successful year. Sixty-one students, sponsored by Mrs. Elda Hansen and Miss Lorene Hoschele, were led through this year by Jackie Martin, president; Kathryn Kilgore, vice president; Grayce Allen, secretary, and Lois Jean Hinze, treasurer.

The Pep Club council was created this year for the purpose of enforcing the rules made by the officers and sponsors. The council members were elected by the Pep Club at the beginning of the year. Members of council include the following: Ann Klosterman, senior; Carole Scribner and Doris Svoboda, juniors; Elaine Morgan, sophomore, and Gwen Vasina, freshman.

Five cheerleaders are elected by the members after a series of try-outs at the beginning of the year. Pat Mulligan, Kathryn Kilgore, Arlene Bock, Virginia Nichols and Marla Armagost were elected to lead the red and black boosters.

A cool refresher is enjoyed at the end of a hard day. Nancy Lonn looks as if she can't wait to taste that soda pop and popcorn she purchased from Kathryn Kilgore and Lois Jean Hinze.

The car might be a bit out of style, but not the boys inside. It looks like everyone concerned is all ready for the first home football game which follows the annual uptown rally.

The witches have invaded the grave yard of teams that David City has defeated in football. Pat Mulligan, Ann Klosterman and Marlene Cermak, stars of one of the pep rallies, seem delighted over the prospect of another team going down in defeat.

Any student who wishes to become a member of Pep Club may do so by paying the $15 membership fee and by abiding by the rules of the organization.

To help meet expenses the Pep Club operates a concession stand after school and at basketball games. Football and basketball schedule pencils are also sold each year.

A Scouthead is earned by one year's membership in Pep Club. Pep rallies are presented before each football game and home basketball games.

The Pep Club cheers the Scouts as they return after the half-time intermission to do battle with the Bison of Central City.

And the Band Played On

There's music in the air as Mr. Bill Gilbert gets ready to "Strike Up the Band."

Tune up those horns and get set to play! That is what the 64 members of the concert band began to do as soon as marching days were over.

The band's first performance was at the annual Christmas program. The two mid-winter concerts were held Feb. 7 and March 7, and the all-day clinic was an event of March 23. The district contest at Fremont on April 8 and 9 climaxed the concert season. The final performance was at commencement on May 20.

The small ensembles, including the clarinet quartet, the saxophone quartet, the brass sextet and the brass quartet also began to materialize following the marching season. These groups, along with several soloists represented the instrumental department at contest. The polka band, a fun group which was organized this year, made two performances on KOLN-TV in addition to playing for school activities.

Here they come marching down the street! Yes, it's the David City High School band doing their best to satisfy the new instructor, Mr. Bill Gilbert.

The 67-piece marching band made its initial performance at the State Fair this year. They furnished the half-time shows for the five home football games.

Special shows were planned with the Pep Club for the homecoming game and for the final home game which featured a circus routine.

The annual marching band contest at the Ak-Sar-Ben, which climaxed the marching season, was the band's major trip this year; they also participated in Band Day at the University of Nebraska.

The 20-piece pep band again followed the football team to games on foreign soil and played during the entire basketball season.

With a song in their hearts the 52 members of the David City High School choir have finished a busy year which included five public performances and participation in three school programs.

The fall music program at the high school featured several of the small groups and soloists as well as the choir.

One of the features of the choir performances this year was the formation of a "Singing Christmas Tree" at the annual Christmas program at the Municipal Auditorium.

Another first-time occurrence this year was the presentation of a joint concert by the band and choir on Feb. 7. The annual choir clinic was held on March 30 in preparation for the district contest at Fremont on April 8 and 9.

The choir gave their final performance at the graduation exercises in the spring.

One of the highlights of the year was the appearance of the girls' sextet, Jean Dworak, soprano solo, and Grayce Allen, pianist, on KOLN-TV early in December.

Various small groups were rehearsing throughout the year and the girls' sextet, quartet, and triple trio responded several times when local organizations requested musical numbers from the school.

These girls might join Robin Hood's group as they learn how to string and shoot a bow and arrow. Pictured are Miss Lorene Hoschele, Pat Mulligan and Joyce Fyfe.

Modern "Robin Hoods" invaded David City High School this year when the new archery equipment arrived for use in the physical education department directed by Miss Lorene Hoschele.

With the wide open spaces of the David City Park in which to practice, no one managed to acquire enough skill to be a true "Robin Hood," but many of the girls developed a new passion for archery.

The upper classmen were the only members of the 75 enrolled in the department that participate in the archery division, but the rest of the girls were allowed to take part in other activities.

The girls were taught to tumble and often to make up their own routines. Tumbling was used as half-time entertainment at some of the home basketball games.

Basketball was played during the winter months. The highlight of this sport was an inter-class tournament open to the physical education girls and any other interested high school girls.

The students learned to play badminton and volleyball when the weather prevented playing outside.

The girls were taught square and folk dancing in the spring. A few weeks before the prom the girls learned ballroom dancing. In the early fall and late spring the girls played softball in the lot north of the school. All these sports made for a busy and complete schedule.

What goes up must come down! This holds true in basketball, as these girls await the chance to get the tip-off in a girls' basketball game.

Exercises, exercises, you must do your exercises! Miss Lorene Hoschele shows Elaine Morgan, JoAnne Demuth and Dorothy Fadschild how to do some of the fundamental exercises taught in the girls' physical education department.

The voice of the students. Those few words summarize the duty of the student council for each class is represented in the group. The freshmen have two representatives; sophomores, three, juniors, four; and the seniors have five representatives. These students are elected at the beginning of the year and, under the guidance of Mr. B. E. Vauck, speak for the entire student body during the year.

The officers of the council were John Wert, president; Ann Klosterman, vice president; Pat

Mulligan, secretary, and Dennis Jacob, treasurer.

The council makes possible many of the social functions during the year. They sponsor several school parties, and pick the assembly programs for the coming year.

An important job of the council is collecting money for the flower fund. Each student is asked to contribute a dime. Flowers are sent to students who are in the hospital and to the families of students who have had a recent bereavement.

Starting the annual flower fund drive for the student council are Marlene Cermak and Dennis Jacob. Melvin McElravy is ready to be the first contributor.

"There's no business like show business." That is what these entertainers from the Cavalcade of Music are trying to convince John Wert, the student council president. This is just one of the programs that was presented before the assembly this year.

Future Farmers

To learn the modern farming methods was one of the reasons why 55 boys enrolled in the David City Chapter of Future Farmers of America this year.

This year's officers were Robert Glock, president; Robert Rathjen, vice president; Dean Glock, secretary; Joe Proskovec, treasurer; Kenny Divis, news reporter and Donald Kozisek, sentinel.

There are four degrees which can be received in the F.F.A. if one meets the recommended requirements. The degrees, in order of the advancement, are greenhand, chapter farmer, state farmer and American farmer.

The F.F.A. accomplishes many community service jobs and activities. They also attend F.F.A. conventions and make field trips each year. Mr. Robert Florell, F.F.A. adviser, accompanied by five members, attended the National F.F.A. convention in Kansas City, Missouri, in the fall.

Highways were happyways this summer for 29 members of the local chapter of F.F.A. when they took a ten-day trip to Canada.

Bashful freshman girls joining F.F.A. ??? This scene was taken from the initiation of the new members in the fall.

Dean Glock, trumpet player in the David City band, was selected as one of the four Nebraska representatives to play in the National F.F.A. Band in Kansas City, Missouri, in October.

Future Farmerettes

Never a dull moment and always busy! That is what being a member of the Future Homemakers of America is like. They always are doing something worthwhile and very profitable.

This year the David City chapter had an enrollment of 50 members. The officers who led them through a successful year were Arlene Kucera, president; Beryl Glock, vice president; Arlene Stara, secretary, and Gladyce Voboril, treasurer.

The district convention was held at David City on Oct. 3. As their theme, the group chose "Peace Through Understanding," and centered the attention on understanding with foreign countries.

To meet their expenses the girls sold glass-cleaner cloths and served as waitresses for other events in the town.

The Future Farmers of America and F.H.A. had several parties. This year they had Parent's Night, a Christmas party and a Valentine's party where a king and queen of the F.F.A. and F.H.A. were crowned.

In the spring a delegate was sent to the state convention. Also at that time the home-making classes had their annual style show; and the new officers for the coming school year were initiated.

Welcome, welcome! Arlene Kucera, president of the local F.H.A., welcomes all the girls of neighboring chapters to the District Convention held in David City, October 3.

Officers for a day! Fifteen juniors were elected by the student body to participate in the County Government Day, held Wednesday, Nov. 4.

The County Government Day is sponsored each year by the American Legion for high school juniors from all the schools in Butler County. The purpose of this day is to show the students the functions of county government officers.

Primary and general elections, under the direction of Mr. Robert Draney, social studies instructor, were held for the elections. David City's office holders included Karen Moser, county clerk; Allan Novak, county treasurer; Denton Kindler, sheriff; Don Kozisek, assessor; Dolores Medinger, clerk of the district court; Beverly Wadkins, county attorney; Virginia Nichols, county judge; JoAnne Demuth, county superintendent, and Marvel Lee Garrison, Rose Rerucha and Jean Marushak, supervisors.

Appointive officers are as follows: Carole Scribner, home extension agent; Rob Armagost, veterans service director; Jim McGurk, county assistance director, and Noel McIntosh, county extension agent.

Books and More Books

Don't judge a book by its cover! Miss Lucile Hoffman, library sponsor, with the help of the three head librarians, Kathryn Kilgore, Dolores Bonne and Arlene Stara, make it possible for the students to enjoy and use the Library.

Inaugurated in 1944, the library now contains over 3,000 books and is growing more each year.

Additions this year included a new Webster Unabridged Dictionary, books on atomic energy, hobbies, aviation, vocational studies and biographies. With approximately 350 books, periodicals and library materials; students should be very appreciative of its use. Space to store and to display periodicals has been added this year.

Prize Journalists

No, this is not the "line up." These amateur actors are practicing a curtain call at dress rehearsal after the final act of this year's junior class presentation, Love Is Too Much Trouble. (left to right) Beverly Wadkins, "Toasty"; Carole Scribner, Ebb Dunham; Jo Anne Demuth, Flo Dunham; Dolores Medinger, Mrs. J. Worthington Bates; Allen Covault, Dr. Pillsy; Nick Meysenburg, Joe Burke; Marlene Cermak, Monica Bates; Ronald Vogeltanz, "Pinky" Hamilton; Rose Rerucha, Connie Ashton; Marvel Lee Garrison, Sugar Lou Jackson; Karen Moser, Ogden "Oggy" McClosky; Noel McIntosh, Cliff Hayward; Beth Wilson, Shirley Bradford, and Dorothy Fadschild, Miss Emily Ross.

Not everyone can lead a double life, but Nick Meysenburg is doing a pretty good job of it as he plays "Estelle" in the junior class play. Looking on are Dorothy Fadschild, Allen Covault, Karen Moser and Ron Vogeltanz. The junior class play, Love Is Too Much Trouble, was presented at the City Auditorium on November 24 and 25.

At dress rehearsal the camera catches the entire cast of the senior play. (back row, left to right) Doris Roland, Aunt Annie; Pat Mulligan, Mrs. J. Francis Hamilton; Robert Glock, Mr. Chalmers; Bill Peters, Pop Haskins; Lois Jean Hinz, Mom Haskins, and Jackie Martin, Pamela Payne. (front row) Kathryn Kilgore, Smitty; Marilyn Miller, Lorelie Hamilton; Dick Wood, Neeley; Ann Klossierman, Virginia Gregg; Dean Glock, Billy Haskins, and Marci Jo Nicodemus. Mary Jane Haskins.

It seems Aunt Annie (Doris Roland) has more life than the average 50 year old woman as she prepares to flip Neeley (Dick Wood) by using her knowledge of jujitsu in the senior class play, Call Me Darling, which was presented May 4 and 5.

Headlines in 1970

By Dick Wood

I have just arrived in David City to attend the big "Alumni Ball" of 1970. As I step out of my car, I am nearly run over by Paul Engler who is still driving his '41 Ford.

After picking myself up, I see the flashing lights of "Shirley's Hash-House" owned and operated by Shirley Van Bummel.

Upon entering I find Maxine Timms, the well known chef, preparing the delicious food.

Looking through the window, I see the sign of the Voboril Dancing Studio run by the Voboril brother-sister team, Gladysce and Bob. Assisting them is the famous instructor, Ivan Rerucha, whose motto is "If you can move, you can dance."

After finishing my lunch, I step up to the counter, and who takes my money but Marie Jacob who is over-joyed with the automatic coin return.

I now pick up a paper which I discover is being edited by my former classmates, Kenny Divis and Dean Glock. I see in the sports section that Alvin Osmera has just qualified for the half-mile in the Olympics. As I turn the page, I see the headline of the "Jeanie Hinze Column." It seems she is still giving advice to the girls.

Upon noticing that it is time for the dance to begin, I hurriedly leave and I am again nearly struck down by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peters. Mrs. Peters is the former Marilyn Miller. They have just come from their New York tent house in their new 1971 Cadillac.

Arriving at the dance, I hear the golden strains of Don Hamsa's all-girl orchestra featuring Doris Roland, vocalist. When I asked about her exquisite gown, I learned that it was designed by the famous dress designer, Dolores Bonne. Some of the top names appearing in the "band of popular demand" are Betty Anadel, Ruth Remmers and Ramona Fricke.

Master of ceremonies and also mayor of the city is John Wert who introduces the alumni traveling the longest distance. Dennis Jacob has just returned from Alaska with his Eskimo wife, Uglug. Coming the second farthest distance was Rear Admiral Wayne Fyfe who has just returned from the Pacific.

Receiving honors for being the outstanding teachers of the year are Marci Jo Nicodemus, home economics teacher; Robert Glock, principal, and Joe Proskovec, vocational agriculture teacher, all of Bruno High School. Joe is here with his wife, the former Arlene Kucera.

While talking to Robert Glock's very efficient secretary, Blondell Henk, I find that Bob Rathjen, Merle Struebing, and David Howe are still attempting to beat Franklin Krov's 13,000 points received for killing coyotes. My attention was then distracted by a flash of light which, of course, could be nothing else but David Kovar's camera. I find that he is taking a picture of Donna Hoback, who I learned was the nurse of Albert Frankenstein.

Who should come and tap me on the shoulder but Adrian Zima who recently struck oil in the Bruno Alps. He was dancing with a former classmate of mine, Arda Ostermeier, the star of the roller derby taking place at the Richert Roller Ring, owned and operated by Lavona Richert.

Our conversation is interrupted by Wilma Svoboda who, I understand, is married to the president of the telegraph company. She announced that a telegram had just arrived from Grayce Ann Allen, who is unable to attend because of her latest concert at Carnegie Hall.

As the dancing again commenced, I overheard the conversation of Kathryn Kilgore and Pat Mulligan. Pat is telling Kathryn of her participation on the panel of the television show, "What's My Line?", sponsored by the famous Mulligan stew. Kathryn is telling of the many students in her eyebrow curling shop. Her motto is "It's easier to curl than to pluck them." Helping Kathryn with her business is Arlene Bock, who has recently invented a new permanent for her customers.

Pat Mulligan told us that one of the recent guests on the show was Jackie Martin, who recently swam the English Channel. Jackie had informed her that she had seen Virginia Alshouse, head page in Queen Elizabeth's court, while she was in England.

As it is getting late, I turn to leave and see Joe Reisdorff. He tells me that he has a prosperous business in his worm farm.

Also hurrying out is the former Jackie Boroviak who has to hurry home as baby sitters are rather expensive.

Looking for my wife, the former Ann Klosterman, I find her talking to Beryl Glock who holds the title of the state bowling champion.

Driving out of town we notice the neon sign of McElravy's motor court. Could this be the Melvin McElravy of the Class of 1954?

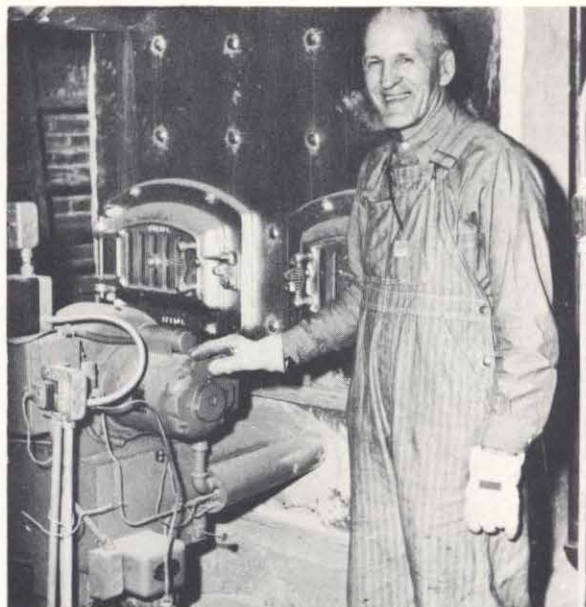

* I, Dick Wood, decide that this has been a very successful day, as I have seen or heard about all of my classmates of the class of '54.

Behind the Scenes

Maxine Martin, graduate of '52 and now school secretary, makes good use of the new IBM typewriter purchased for her office.

Everybody likes something new, and Roy Welte is no exception. Roy, school janitor, is very proud of the new heating system installed this year.

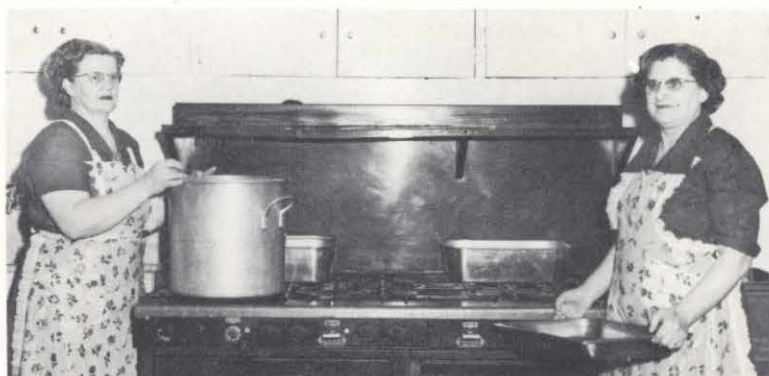

The little red school house on the hill is no more! How wonderful it is to come into a warm, clean school house in the mornings. Thanks to the janitors who put in many extra hours of work each day. Roy Welte and Ray Kudlacek are the janitors at high school, while Bob Doner cleans the shop and Fred Stafford works at the South Ward School.

And thanks to Mrs. Vern Blevins and Mrs. John Tomek we are able to have a hot lunch for only a quarter. Approximately one hundred twenty students eat at school each day.

David City Public Schools operate five buses that go out every morning and evening to transport country students to and from school. Bob Doner, John Tomek, Ray Kudlacek and Art Forney drive the four buses for high school, while Fred Stafford drives the bus for the grades. These buses are also used to transport students to out of town school activities.

Two hundred twenty mouths to feed! Mrs. Vern Blevins and Mrs. John Tomek, cooks at David City High, begin the task of preparing the noon meal.

"In the Good Old Summertime"

Back to good old United States! This is a picture of the United States-Canada borderline taken by the F. F. A. boys on their trip to Canada. Mr. Robert Florell, Mr. Ray Kudlacek and twenty-nine boys made the trip in August, 1953.

Just home from a trip! The 1953 representatives for Boys' and Girls' State, Bill Peters and Jackie Martin, talk over the great times spent at Lincoln. Boys' and Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary and is held in Lincoln in June.

The occupants of the head table enjoy the food served by the sophomore boys and girls at the 1953 banquet. The banquet, planned by the juniors, carried out the theme of Oriental Gardens.

The class officers and their escorts lead the one hundred two juniors and seniors in the grand march to open the 1953 junior-senior alumni ball, held on May 3.

The king and queen of the 1953 prom, Walt Svoboda and Mary Beth Moran, are seated in the royal throne after being vested with their honors. Jean Burdick, Don Dworak, Arlene Voboril and Don Kilgore were their attendants.
