In Fond Memories...

Class of "76"

Joey Krov

(Oct. 23, 1957 Nov. 3, 1972)

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land . . .

Think of him still as the same, I say!

He is not dead—he is just away.
James W. Riley

Class of "75"

Theresa Petrik

(July 16, 1957 Nov. 28, 1972)

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.

The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day . . .

O. J. Hanson

Fleeting Time

*I have no yesterdays,
Time took them away;*

*Tomorrow may not be—
But I have today.*

INTRODUCTION

*Today is your day and mine!
The only day we have.*

The day in which we play our part.

What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand

And now is our time.

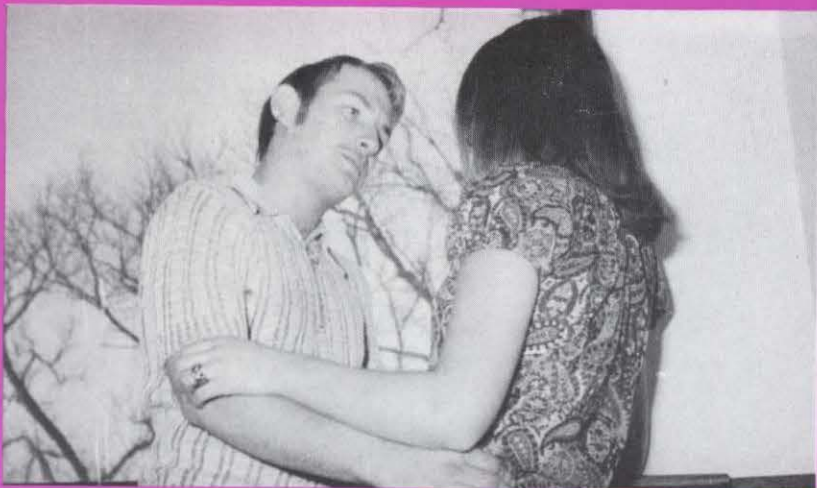

at we are here to play it.

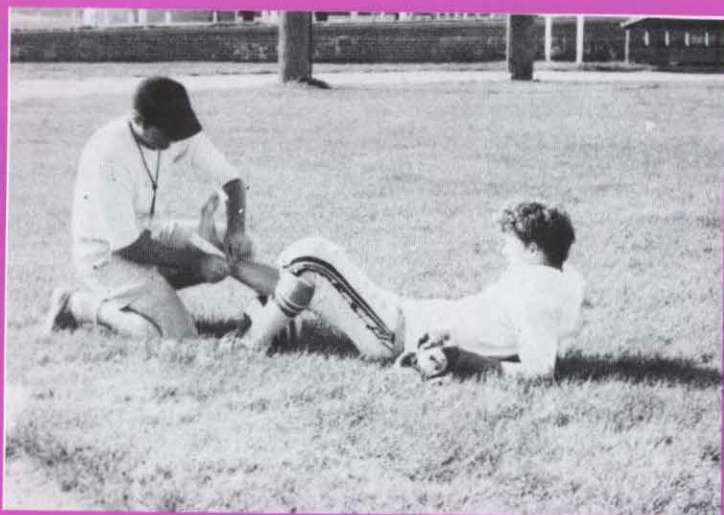

This we know

It is a part of action, not whining.

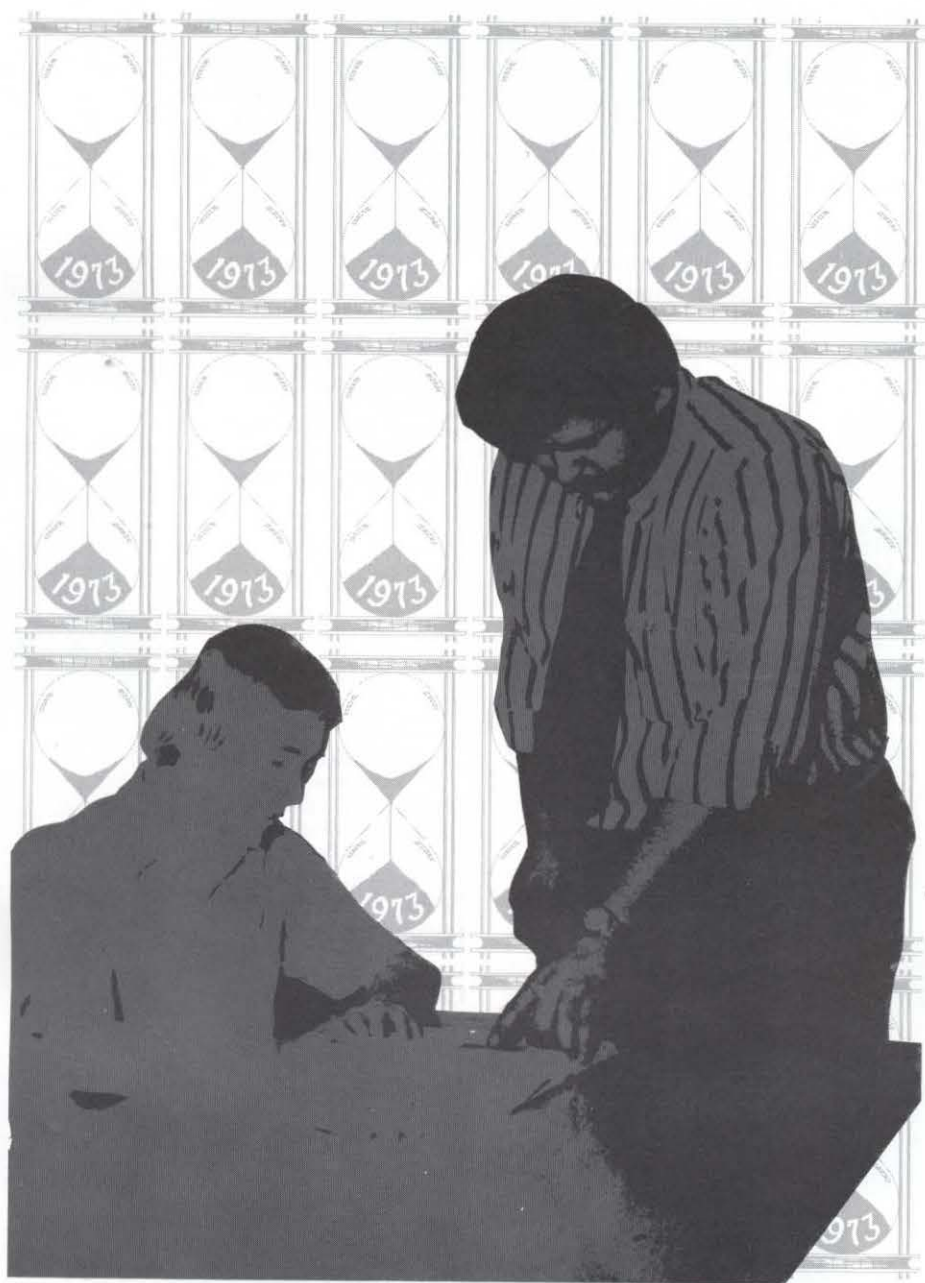

It is a part of love, not cynicism.

It is for us to express love in terms of human helpfulness.

—D. S. Jordan

SENIORS 1973

Only yesterday we came as freshmen—stumbling down the halls searching for a friend—forgetting which door was our next class. Today we are Seniors—going away—having explored and discovered an ocean of new ideas and having expanded our minute knowledge of the vast world around us. Gaining many life-long friends—we share as many beautiful memories as our small minds can hold. Tomorrow we will be apart from one another—each being his own boss—doing what he wants. May God give him the time he needs to achieve his final goal and be happy.

FROSH

In just a few moments they will be tomorrow's seniors. They must learn to squeeze as much precious life out of each short day as they possibly can—to not be afraid to learn—to reach out for the stars. Most important—to not delay with the reason—"There's plenty of time."—because someday—all too soon there won't be plenty of time.

1972 proved to be a great year for the Scout football team. Finishing with an 8-1 record and rated number 8 in Class B, the football team was truly worthy of admiration! They were still the "real big red!"

Hard work at practice and determination were the key factors for the success of the football team.

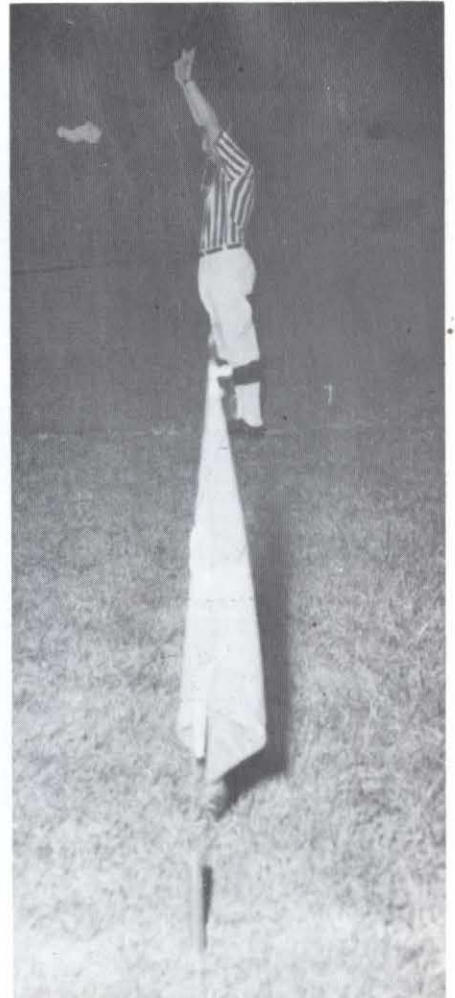

Fine team effort shown by the Scout Superstars!!

The basketball season is over and all we have left is memories. Memories of games—bus rides—victories and defeats. Do you remember the Schuyler game—the overtime or how about the Milford game? How could anyone forget the St. Paul game! Whatever our memories of basketball are—be they happy or sad, we will always have these memories and nothing can take them from us.

Is this basketball or wrestling?

Who said you didn't know how to dance!

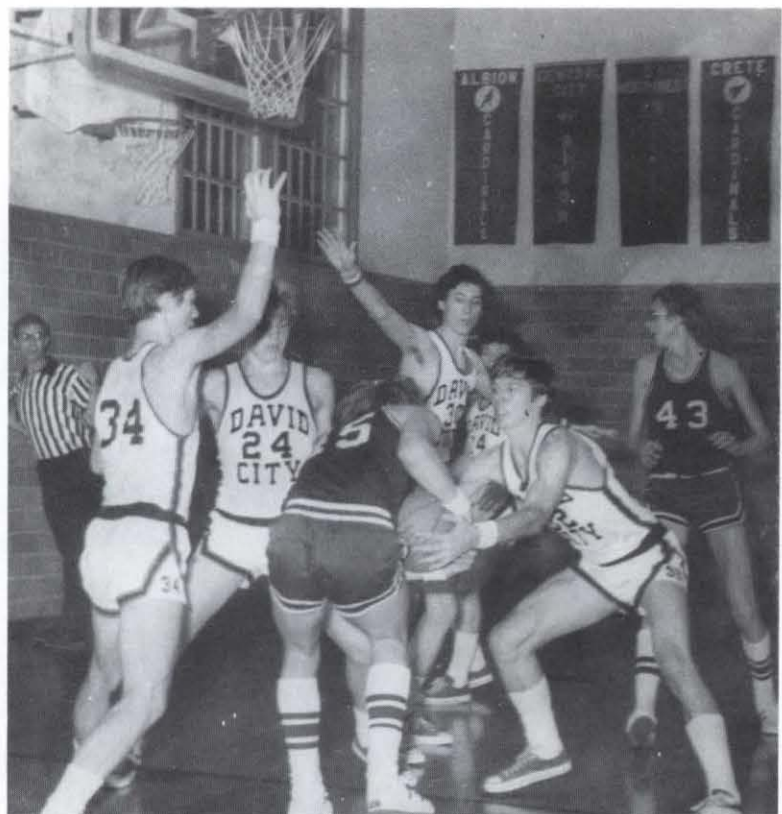

Dan Bock and Bill Bartlett chalk up those extra points, then together with the rest of the team, listen attentively as Coach Muma explains his new tactics.

Excitement turns to tension as the clock ticks out the final seconds of the game. The Scout team grabs for all it can while a Chanticleer does a double-take. The buzzer signals the end of the game. Followed by the weary Coach Muma, the Scouts proudly rush to the showers, taking another victory with them.

Practice makes What?

That's what we like to see—everybody working hard!

Here our boys are demonstrating one of the more difficult calisthenics.

A relay takes the combined efforts of each runner. Dave McVay does his part at the Central Ten Relays.

Anchor man Rick Martin applies a final burst of energy to score for the Scouts.

After spending an exhausting day at the Central Ten meet, it's good to relax with a cold pop and snack. Right Steve?

Mark Gruenewald hands the baton off to Rick Martin. One hesitation could lose a few precious seconds.

Girls Track was introduced this year at D.C.H.S. and it went over very well. In fact, so well that some 36 girls joined the squad. Show'em what you can do girls!

Well, whatever the coach is laughing at, Jenise doesn't think is a bit funny.

Hey you back there! Get your hood up!

Hmm! Should I or shouldn't I?

That's right. Now all the way over!

The Scouts missed State by four points but every basketball game during Districts and the regular season proved that the Big Red was NOT dead—in fact very much alive! Good luck to the roundballers next season!

Our fans tell it all!

SCHOOL LIFE

Another test tomorrow. Homework again. Boy, school is such a drag. . . . but it doesn't have to be. It can be exciting and fun—if you let it be. A hundred funny instances happen each day. There are a certain group of kids that keep laughter flowing through the halls. Enjoy school! Don't waste four years of your life! There's so much to do, so many things to get involved in. School isn't a waste of time. Life is too short to waste time—and complain. Make time count and you'll come out ahead. So instead of saying—Homework again, say—You'll never believe what happened in school today or Guess what I learned in school today. Learning can be an exciting and wonderful experience!

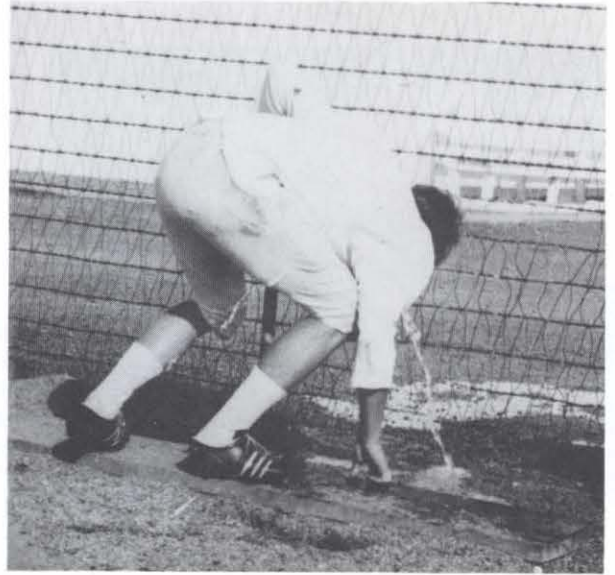

Why do you look at me like that, Mrs. Arnold?

A new course introduced this year was Art. It was taken and enjoyed by many students. Some of the things you learned to do were stitchery, macrame, sketching, weaving, sculpturing and pottery. Here, John demonstrates throwing on the wheel.

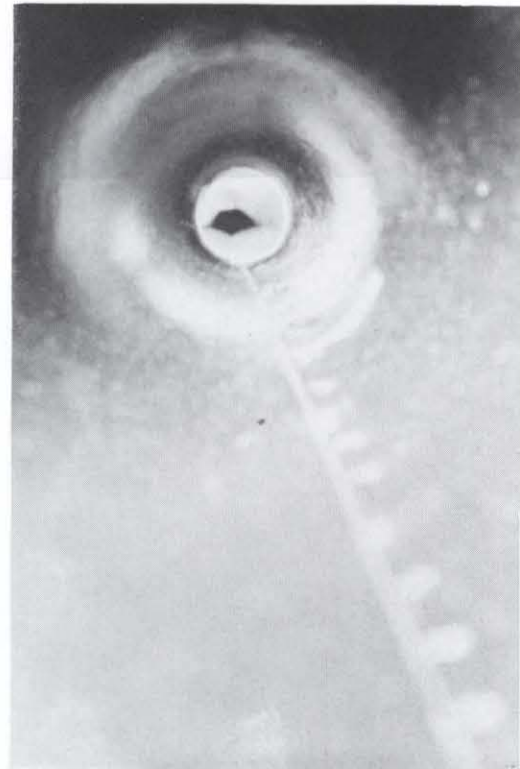

All rise cause "Here comes de judge, here come the judge!" (Why is Dan laughing so hard?)

Ah! Nothing better than nature's own to soothe the scorched throat and refresh the weary, aching body.

Now Betty, you know how Smoky Bear feels about you playing with matches.

For those of you who can't figure out what this is, turn to page 61. There the answer lies.

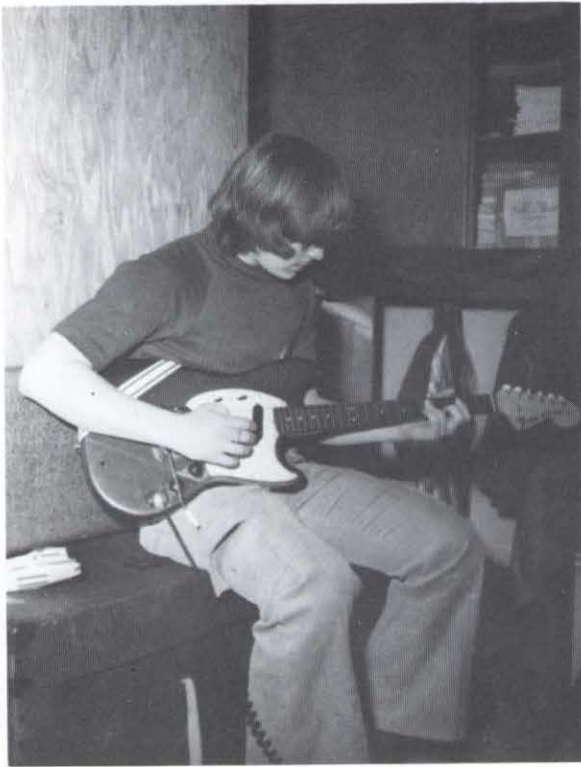

Did you say you saw these three beauties in "Valley of the Dolls", or "The Good, the Bad, the Ugly?"

Nanc is modeling an FFA jacket. (Really she is getting out of helping set tables for the annual FHA soup supper.)

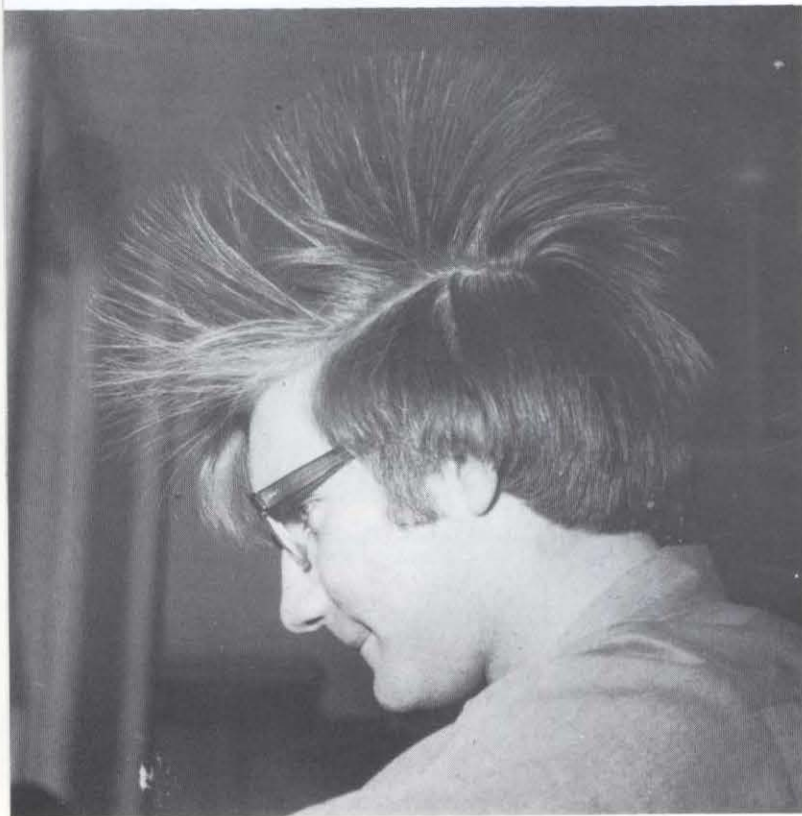

She ain't heavy, she's my brother.

Elvis Presley—eat your heart out!

Which one does Jane need to reach the attendance slip with a bit more ease?
A: thicker eyebrows, B: large forehead, C: longer hair, or D: longer toenails. (The correct answer is E: None of the above.)

Does Russ see a mouse?

If teachers look like this at the close of each day, wonder what the poor students look like!

Why are all the cheerleaders ducking?

This is one of the many styles of doorways created by pep club for the varsity roundballers to burst through at the beginning of each game.

Watching the Scouts in action even holds the attention of the kiddies. Beck Daro paused only briefly enough to pose for a picture but kept on clapping.

ANSWER: (Susan Kaufmann's luscious lips as seen through a megaphone.)

ALL SCHOOL PLAY "GAY NINETIES REVUE"

Directed by Glenetta Misek
Co-Directed by Frank Hansen

This year, in honor of the David City Centennial, the cast members went back some eighty years to revue the "Gay Nineties." The production included pantomimes, recitations, singing and a melodrama.

"... the poor girl would shake with alarm (with alarm) ..."

"A playboy from Washington—declared I was the one!"

Taking active part in the Centennial this year is the Thespians Club. Terri Crandell is modeling a style of the olden days—the flapper.

FHA

Everyone knows of the many worthwhile projects attributed to FHA, but there are also a few strange ones. Take for example, the chicken picking incident this past winter. Imagine if you will, thirty innocent FHA'ers in the midst of 12,000 nauseous chickens.

Other humorous escapades included near-drownings at the swimming party, concussions at the annual roller skating party, and faithful concession stand workers being mobbed by famished football fanatics. FHA is a great organization to be in if you like to meet new people and enjoy helping others.

The David City FFA Chapter has been busy this school year. The officers attended leadership camp, state convention, and the national convention. Money making projects have been a dunking stand at the county fair, football concession stand and carrying chickens. Plans in the immediate future are to participate in FFA Contests and the county and state fairs, the FFA-FHA Banquet, and building a float for the Centennial Parade.

FFA-FHA CORONATION

Royalty John Klement, King; Judy Romshek, Queen; Randy Schultz and Demaris Smith, First Attendants; Dennis Dostal and Jane Mastera, Second Attendants; John Speicher and Ruth Schmale, Third Attendants; Mike Ewert and Ron Dolezal, Fourth and Fifth Attendants.

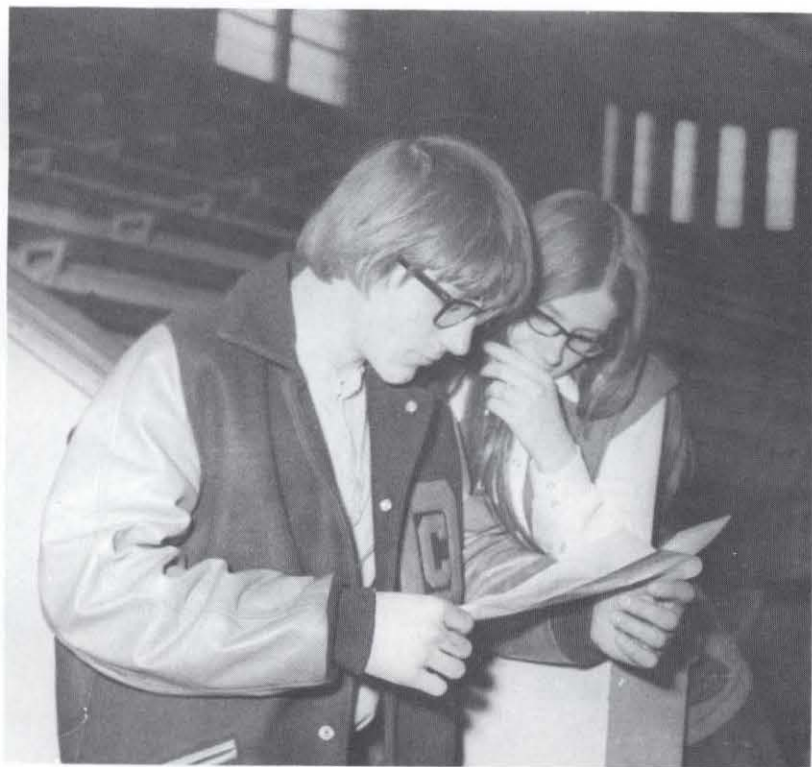

The 1973 FFA-FHA Coronation was held February tenth in the high school gym. The FFA and FHA underclassmen worked long hours to illustrate the chosen theme of "It's So Nice To Be With You" using the colors red, pink and white. After the crowning, the royalty danced the traditional waltz, played by "The Four of Us."

CLOSING

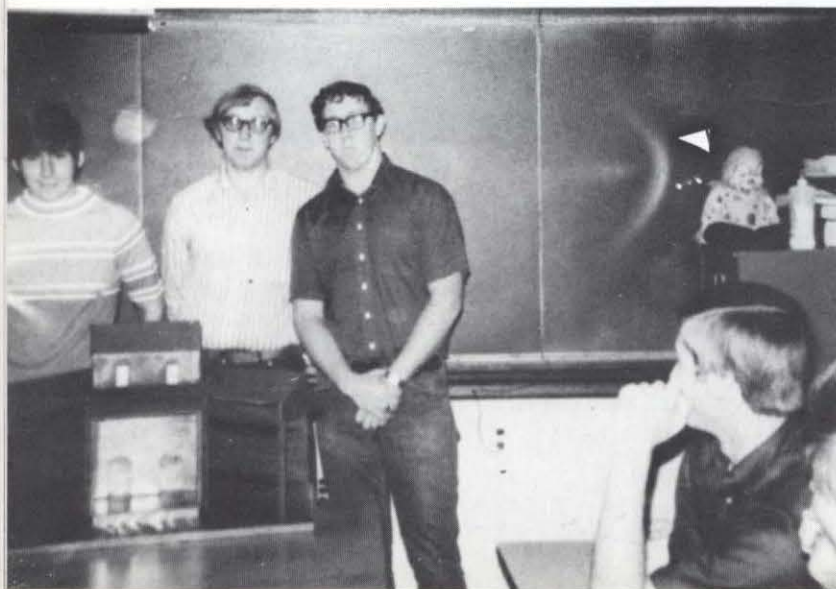

TOGETHERNESS

But I have today . . . to be together. If I want to—I can share, work, learn, love together with other people like me. I can find great happiness in another person. I love people . . . to be with them.

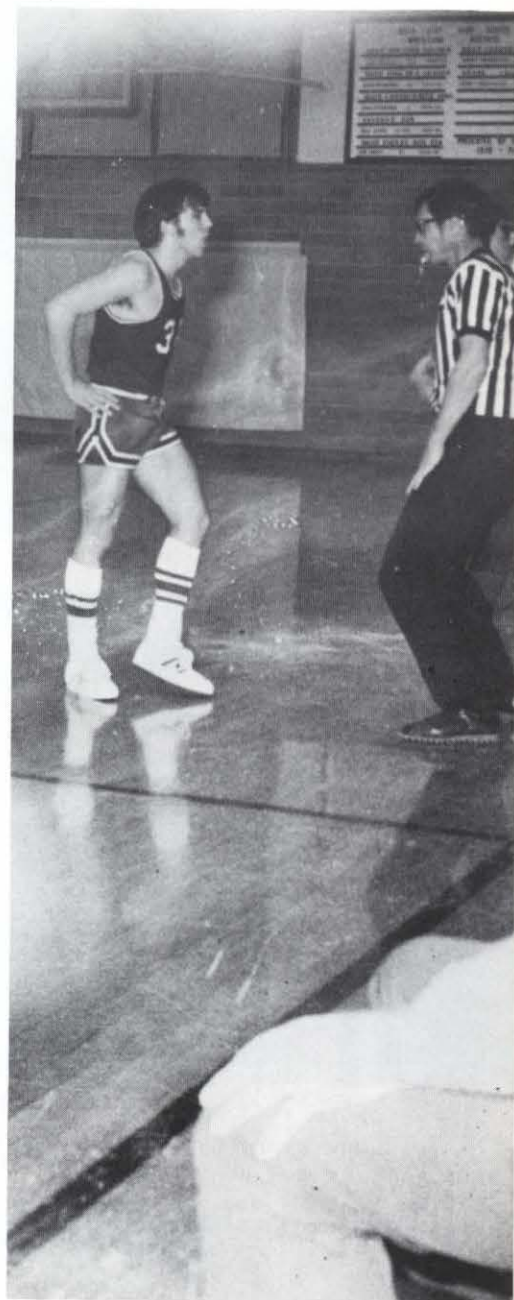

INVOLVEMENT

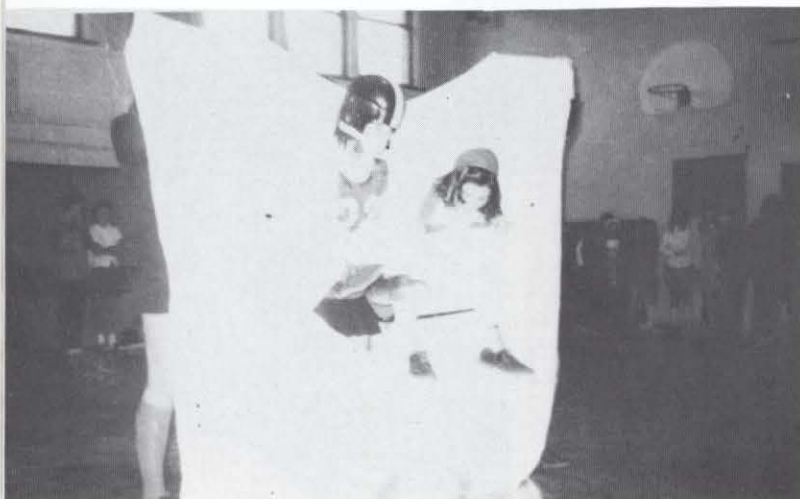

But I have today . . . to be involved. I can just sit and watch but why not get with it—get involved. The time is now, not in a little while, tomorrow, next week. Now! Now! Now! It's fun, exciting, worthwhile. I find that other people aren't any different from me. We're the same. It's great to know that.

MATURITY

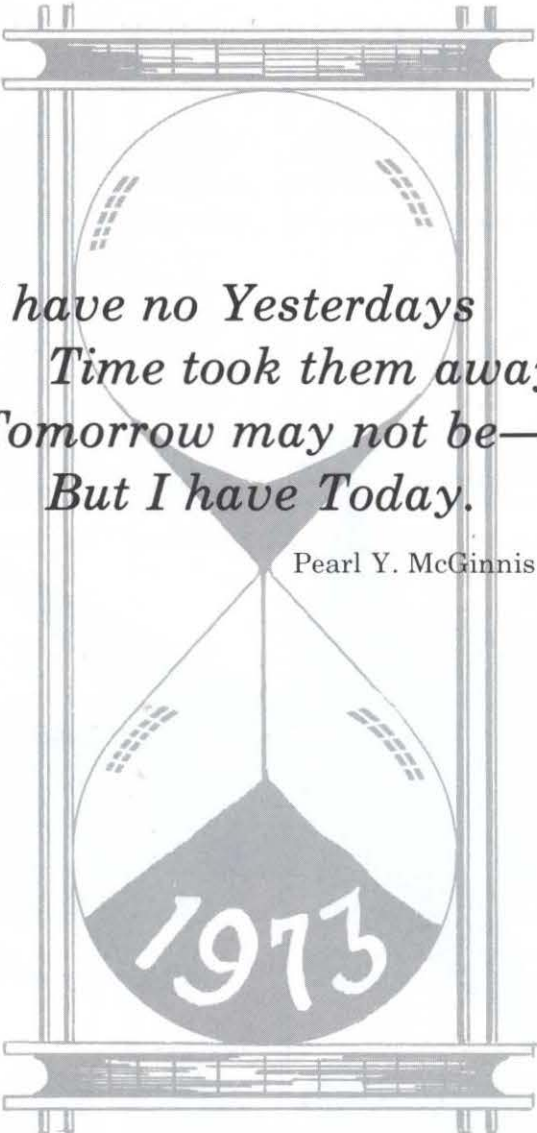

But I have today . . . and only today to be mature. I must grow up! I can't be protected like a child and act like a child forever. I must accept my duties and responsibilities. I must prove my adulthood instead of showing my childishness.

ENJOYMENT

But I have today . . . to enjoy. I can have loads of fun in school, in public, during the holidays, any place, any time. because I don't know how much time God gave me to breathe—I must not waste one single breath. Live . . . today . . . fully . . . don't worry about tomorrow . . . or yesterday . . . today . . . I have it in my hands . . . it must not get away . . . until I'm done with it!

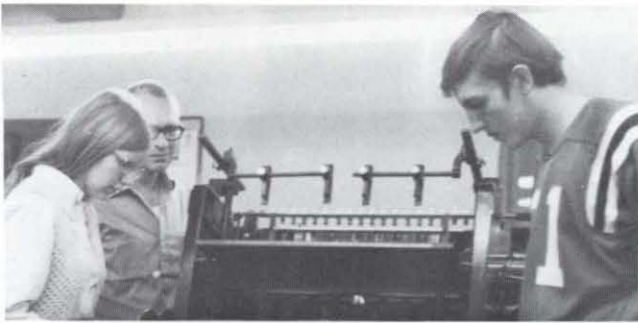

*I have no Yesterdays
Time took them away;
Tomorrow may not be—
But I have Today.*
