Leave Your Mark

The theme for the 2016 David City High School yearbook was decided by the staff. Many ideas were thrown around, but the final decision was "Leave Your Mark". We chose this theme because it really is what high school is about. You go the four years of high school, not thinking about the mark you leave. But it acts as a guide for the classes to come. Whether your mark is being the class clown to even being the most energetic, it will have an impact.

"Quality, Not Quantity"

David City's marching made a revival three years ago when band director Joe Albright started the marching band program again, and the 2015 David City marching band unquestionably made its mark this year. At the last competition of the year at the Oxford Marching Invitational in Ashland, the band earned their first superior rating in over 5 years even with only 17 members. Smaller numbers leaves less room for mistakes during performance, but the band overcame the disadvantage of its size and achieved its goal.

There were three competitions the band marched at this year:
- Capitol City Marching Championships @ Lincoln - excellent rating
- Columbus Marching Festival @ Columbus - excellent rating
- Oxford Marching Invitational @Ashland - superior rating

The theme this year was "New York, New York," and the three songs played were On Broadway, I Dreamed a Dream, and Theme from New York. The band will be flying to New York after school ends this year for its quadrennial band trip, and they will be performing their marching music on the USS Intrepid in New York City.

Near the end of the school year, the band played at the District Music Competition at Central Community College. The band as a whole scored an excellent rating (II), but many individuals earned superior ratings (I) in either a solo or duet. The following earned the highest rating possible:

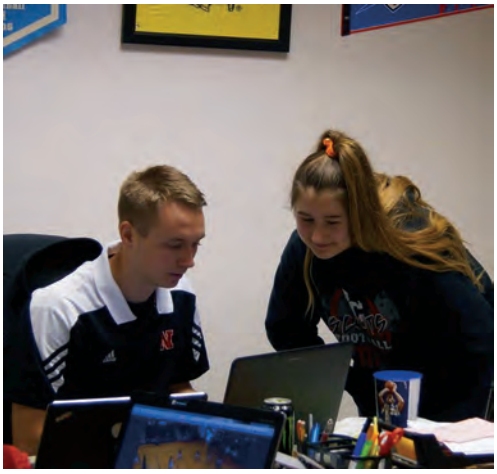

Solo: Kylie H. (trumpet), Brooke B. (trumpet), Bethany T. (both french horn & vocal performance), and Wesley U. (baritone).
Duet: Will H. and Bethany T. (Clarinet & french horn).

Body text was font AWPC James, and Headline text was font AWPC Baskerville. Faculty, seventh grade, eighth grade, freshmen, sophomore, and junior portraits were provided by Life Touch. Formal group pictures were provided by Goc's Photography in Columbus. The cover was designed by Iris P. All layouts, copy, and candids were produced by the Graphic Design II Class

Mrs. Connie Lentz

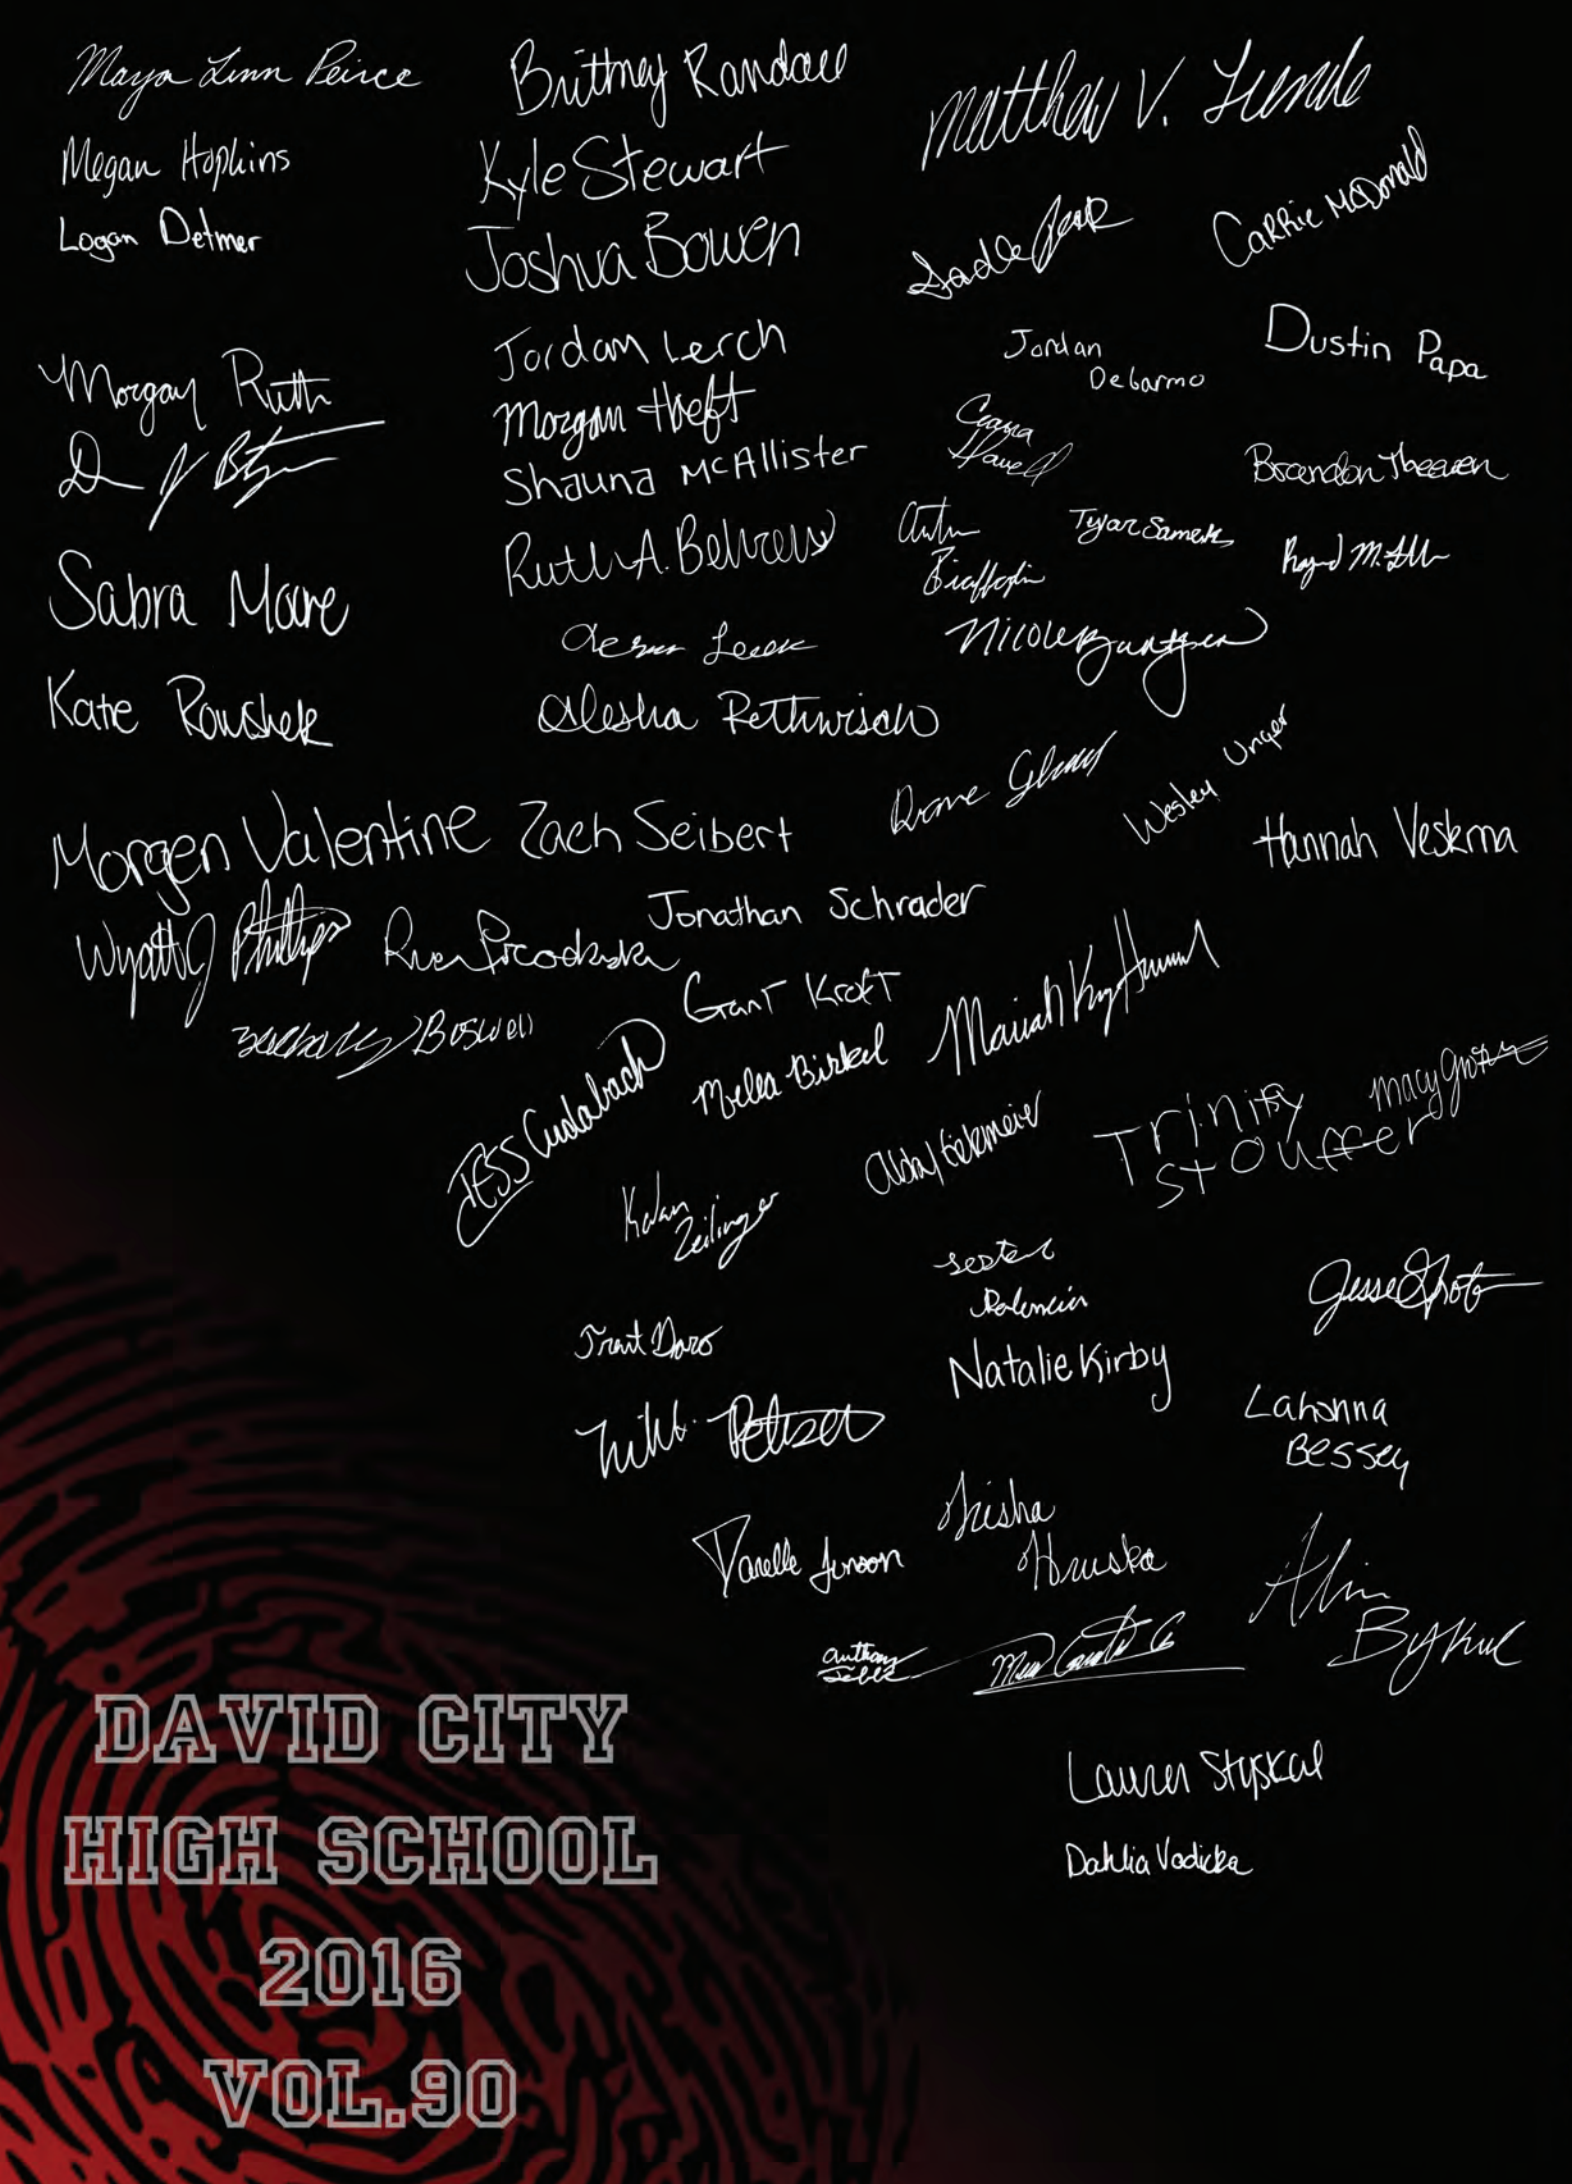

After 36 years of teaching, Mrs. Connie Lentz is retiring from teaching. Before teaching 14 years at DCHS, Mrs. Lentz taught at Hyannis Rural, Gibbon, ESU 10 in Grand Island, Valentine, and Kearney. One of her favorite memories were to to see students/ athletes finally improve or achieve something. Mrs. Lentz quotes "I have found so much joy in my career of working with students, staff, administration, and parents throughout all my years in Education." She was the President of Nebraska Coaches Association in 1996, participated in three years of Color Commentating for NETV State volleyball tournament, was named Peter Keiwit Outstanding Teacher Award in 2002, and was David City Public Schools Outstanding Educator of 2015-16. Mrs. Lentz also quotes "I knew in 6th grade that I wanted to be a teacher and coach and now to have done it for 36 years is truly amazing and I can't believe it is coming to an end. Thank you David City Public Schools for a great experience to end on and now time to go camping."
